Triple celebrations for Seaton Rotary

MEMBERS of the Seaton Rotary Club have shown recognition to a group of hardworking volunteers by presenting them with the Rotary International Britain and Ireland Award for Services to the Community.

At their annual dinner event held at the White Hart Inn in Colyford, members of the Seaton Rotary Club first witnessed the official presidential handover for the next year.

Outgoing president, Dr Mick Askew, thanked the group for their support before officially handing over the chain of office to Beer lady and dedicated Rotarian, Jean Davies.

Next the group showed their appreciation for members of Seaton's Voice, who have transformed the town hall into a thriving hub for all the community and raised hundreds of pounds for various charities.

Members of Seaton's Voice run regular gigs and entertainment for all ages, and have recently introduced state of the art live streaming to Seaton and are currently rolling out their young leaders scheme, aiming to incorporate Seaton's young people into the community for future years.

New president Jean handed over the award certificate to chairman of Seaton's Voice, Carole Manley.

As a special bonus to the award, the Rotary also handed over a cheque for £100 to support the young leaders scheme, which was gratefully received by 12-year-old young leader Jennifer Weber.

On receiving the award,

Carole Manley said: "It is always very special to be honoured by our peers and Seaton's Voice are very honoured to receive this award. This is a token of recognition for volunteers and everyone in the community that make such a difference.

"It is also a great achievement for our young leaders who are learning different skills. They have been working towards their goal for more than a year and have also become an important part of the local community. I am very proud of them. I would like to take this opportunity to thank the Rotary for their support, as well as thanking the Seaton and District Lions as they are our partners for their young leaders scheme."

President Jean Davies added: "It is a great honour to be made president and I hope I and everyone in the Rotary enjoy the next year.

"The Rotary Club of Seaton has always appreciated Seaton's Voice and the vital work that they do for the town.

They do so much for Seaton and we are glad to show recognition of all they have done."

Plans afoot for second twin town

PLANS are in place to begin a project linking Seaton to the German town of Weil der Stadt.

At a full town council meeting last Monday, Cllr Sharon Bruce requested the views of the fellow council on whether they would be happy to establish a procedure to twin with the German town.

Beer crash driver bailed

THE driver of a motorhome involved in a serious collision in Beer on Tuesday, July 9th has been charged for dangerous driving.

Police have been appealing for witnesses following the serious road traffic collision where the motorhome headed the wrong way down the one-way street at Common Lane and collided with a wall before also colliding with a group of pedestrians.

The driver of the motorhome, Arnold Kasserra, aged 67 and from Germany, has been charged with two counts of Causing Serious Injury by Dangerous Driving contrary to S.1A of the Road Traffic Act 1988.

Mr Kasserra has been released on bail and is due to attend Exeter Magistrates' Court on August 6th.

Police from the Serious Collision Investigation Unit are investigating the incident and ask that any witnesses to this incident contact them on 101 quoting police reference 0333 090713.

During the public session, the council heard from a Weil der Stadt teacher, Ralph Grossman, who explained that he has been accompanying students from the town for a number of years during residential trips to Seaton, describing the trip as the 'highlight of the school year'.

Mr Grossman explained that the school had been visiting Seaton on an annual basis for 35 years, bringing 40 young people each time and totalling 1,400 students over the years. He added that he hoped the town council would consider strengthening the links between the two towns.

Also linked with the German visits was Seaton resident John Cooper, who stressed the importance of the association and explained that not just the current students but also several generations in their family have visited Seaton over the years.

Whilst the council discussed the idea, Cllr Bruce, the exchange organiser, asked the council to consider the association of many years and to establish a procedure for twinning with the town, including potential costs.

Each year, since 2003, Cllr Bruce has been a host co-ordinator of a team including two to three German teachers, four English teachers and 40 students.

Talks between Seaton Town Council and the Mayor of Weil der Stadt have also taken place, exploring the links between the two towns.

Councillors were unanimous in their agreement, and enthusiasm for the project, hoping that a procedure could be put in place to 'celebrate the long association'.

If anyone would like to discuss the link or think they may be able to help with establishing a twinning link with Weil der Stadt, you can contact Sharon on 01297 24028 or email shardav5@aol.com

Quotes of the week...

WE looked long and hard at all the options on the table including staying at the Knowle. 'The simple matter of fact is that our current offices are a huge drain on resources - as well as the financial considerations, the buildings are just not fit for purpose. 'We also considered in detail a number of options for demolishing the current offices and building smaller offices on the site alongside some residential development. But it just doesn't stack up financially'

East Devon District Council leader Paul Di-viani on why they think it is necessary to vacate their Knowle headquarters in Sidmouth and find new, less expensive offices in Honiton or Cranbrook.

WE ARE currently having an increased demand due to things like benefit delays, malnutrition and benefit cuts. There is a huge food shortage going on right now and it is really important that we have food being delivered. The food we are asking for is cereals, tinned fruit and vegetables, powdered milk, pasta, canned pulses, canned meat, sauces, toilet rolls, washing powder and soap.'

Second death after A35 crash

A NOTORIOUS stretch of the A35 was back in the news for all the wrong reasons last week.

A second person died on Wednesday, July 17th following an accident outside Hunters Lodge, near Axminster, a week earlier on Wednesday, July 10th.

A 90-year-old woman, who was a passenger in one of the vehicles, died in hospital from her injuries.

A previously reported, the accident involved a van and a car and happened on Wednesday, July 10th.

There were three people in the vehicle and one of them, 82-year-old Pamela Manning from Harrow, was declared dead at the scene.

The identity of the woman who died in hospital has not yet been disclosed.

Another accident then happened on Saturday, July 20th when a car and a motorcyclist collided on the A35 at Hunters Lodge in the afternoon.

Police said the collision happened at low speed.

The motorcyclist's pillion passenger was treated at the scene and taken to hospital with non-life-threatening injuries.

Food Bank appeal

AXMINSTER food bank Canned Sunshine is under increased pressure because clients suffer from cut benefits and delayed payments.

To help alleviate the situation, food bank bosses have issued an urgent appeal for certain foods.

Canned Sunshine was formed by Axminster Health & Wellbeing Centre in September 2012.

Centre manager Aynsley Jones said: "We are currently having an increased demand due to things like benefit delays, malnutrition and benefit cuts."

"There is a huge food shortage going on right now and it is really important that we have food being delivered."

"The food we are asking for is cereals, tinned fruit and vegetables, powdered milk, pasta, canned pulses, canned meat, sauces, toilet rolls, washing powder and soap."

She said that many people just can't make their scarce financial resources stretch until the end of the month. In the week commencing July 8th, for example, Canned Sunshine provided food for more than 30 people.

From the editor's chair Is this a proper job?

OVER the years I've covered some weird and wonderful events in Pulman's Country which has provided me with countless tales that I hope to include in a book when I finally relinquish the Editor's Chair. Don't get excited. It's not going to happen soon.

From ploughing matches – one of the first events I covered for the old Western Times and Gazette to Dwile Flunking (don't ask!), wassailing to conger cuddling – they've all found their way into my notebook over the years.

One of the most bizarre and extraordinary country activities that I have covered on a few occasions, however, must be nettle eating competitions. I'm all for a bit of fun, but I can't help asking: "Why would anyone want to eat stinging nettles?"

I popped over to Marshwood on Saturday evening where the World Nettle Eating Championships were being staged at the rejuvenated Botle Inn, the epitome of a country pub if I've ever seen one, and where 23 brave souls, including two young girls, munched their way through hundreds of feet of stingers.

Like me, there were one or two bemused visitors looking on. And I could see what they were thinking: "Does everyone do this in Dorset?" No we don't.

When I spoke to the winner for the second year running, Peter Wellman, of Axminster, he was recovering from gulping down 60 feet of nettles, eight less than last year and 12 fewer than the world record. He was not a well boy.

"I think it's starting to take a toll on me," he said.

In true Wellman spirit, however, he plans to return next year, determined to get that world record. Don't bet on him not doing so.

Such crazy customs are part of living in the country and long may that be the case. If nothing else, they give me plenty of colourful content for "Tales of a Country Reporter".

Maybe I will choose the title "Get Yourself A Proper Job Son" for that's what my mum advised after my first week in work when I witnessed several fatal accidents, including a runaway lorry, a rather messy suicide in Payhembury and experienced the smell of burning flesh in a campsite fire.

♦ FURTHER to last week's comments on the need for improvements at the Hunters Lodge junction on the A35, it is sad to report this week that another elderly occupant of one of the vehicles involved in the latest serious action died last week and there was another accident, albeit a minor one, at the weekend.

That's four fatalities at this notoriously dangerous junction in a short period. Which strengthens the argument for immediate safety measures.

SEATON

Town courts twin from Germany

PLANS are in place to begin a project linking Seaton to the German town of Weil der Stadt.

At a full town council meeting last Monday, Councillor Sharon Bruce requested the views of the fellow council on whether they would be happy to establish a procedure to twin with the German town.

During the public session, the council heard from a Weil der Stadt teacher, Ralph Grossman, who explained that he has been accompanying students from the town for a number of years during residential trips to Seaton, describing the trip as the 'highlight of the school year'.

Mr Grossman explained that the school had been visiting Seaton on an annual basis for 35 years, bringing 40 young people each time and totalling 1,400 students over the years. He added that he hoped the town council would consider strengthening the links between the two towns.

Also linked with the German visits was Seaton resident John Cooper, who stressed the importance of the association and explained that not just the current students but also several generations in their family have visited Seaton over the years.

COLYTON

Plan for another 32 new homes

TWO separate planning applications for a total of 32 new houses in Colyton have been submitted to East Devon District Council.

Colyton Parish Council was expected to discuss and make a recommendation on the two applications at the Planning Committee meeting last night (Monday).

The proposed developments include 12 affordable houses, associated roadworks, parking and a play area on land off Mount View, submitted by Sovereign Housing Association, and 20 houses with the formation of access, service road and parking on land north of Yaffles, Coly Road.

Further details on both planning applications were not available on East Devon District Council's planning website at the time of going to press. However, a site meeting has already been called to discuss the Mount View development, as there are concerns over possible encroachment on a neighbour's property.

EAST DEVON

Knowle not fit for purpose

THE future of Sidmouth's Knowle council offices is uncertain after EDDC's Cabinet came to a unanimous agreement to leave Sidmouth and find a new headquarters.

Options for a new home for EDDC are set to include two sites in Honiton and various sites at the new town of Cranbrook, following a cabinet decision that the Knowle is no longer a viable option.

The report, taken to the cabinet meeting last Wednesday, explained the various work and research undertaken to resolve issues surrounding EDDC headquarters. It highlighted driving concerns on costs surrounding the running of the Knowle building, and the working conditions for EDDC staff.

Deputy Chief Executive, Richard Cohen, helped to compile the report and said: "We have driving concerns on how much more it costs to run a building like this in comparison to a modern building."

"The Knowle is a Victorian hotel converted into offices so we have staff working from converted bathrooms, toilets and areas in the building which just aren't good for working in."

"It is currently costing EDDC £458,000 per year to run the Knowle but if we wanted to move to a more modern office, we are looking at costs of around £269,000. So, in effect, we are spending out around £188,000 more than we actually need to."

"This doesn't include the £1.5 million needed if we were to stay, which would be just for vital maintenance work, not refurbishments or improving staff comforts."

Council Leader, Paul Diviani, added: "In 1999, this was already on the agenda, it is just that nobody has had the time or energy to come up with a suitable plan of action."

"We looked long and hard at all the options on the table including staying at the Knowle."

"The simple matter of fact is that our current offices are a huge drain on resources – as well as the financial considerations, the buildings are just not fit for purpose."

STOP PRESS ...

AN Axminster pub suddenly closed its doors.

It is understood that Castle Inn in Castle Hill traded on Sunday, July 21st but did not reopen the following day.

A note on the door says the pub is closed.

Punch Taverns issued a brief statement in the afternoon on Monday, saying: "The Castle Inn is temporarily closed and we apologise for any inconvenience caused."

"Our priority is to reopen the pub as soon as possible."

Castle Inn previously ceased trading in 2010, but landlord Robert Rocky Whenray took charge in November 2010 and the pub underwent an external and internal overhaul as part of a re-investment package by Punch Taverns.

Bloom judges impressed by volunteers' efforts in Seaton

by Laura Goldsbury Noy
laura@pemedial.co.uk

THE hard work of many volunteers and members of the Seaton In Bloom committee was recognised when judges from the South West In Bloom competition visited the town.

Judges Andy Cole and Barry Cruse were taken on a tour around the town last Friday, guided by dedicated members of the Seaton In Bloom committee, visiting many sites around that have been beautified for the competition.

Sites included the newly refurbished Jubilee Gardens, Fisherman's Gap, The Haven Sensory Garden, the Wetlands, allotments and the town hall.

Along the way, judges were met by volunteers and Seaton representatives, as well as meeting those who play a major part in the community such as the Seaton Welcome Team.

There was also an emphasis on the local youth, with a visit to Seaton Primary School and their recent garden maze project, a look around the skate park (which is currently being updated), and a chance to have a look at the Seaton Rainbows 10th anniversary garden opposite the town hall.

The judges finished their tour with a visit to Windsor Gardens where three young members of the Seaton Rainbows and a Tai Chi presentation greeted them.

Following the tour, Bloom judge Mr Cole said: "Seaton has very much improved since last year, with lots of community support and many groups contributing towards changing and improving Seaton."

"I am very impressed with what I have seen today and have really enjoyed my visit."

Mr Cruse said: "It has been a really incredible tour that has been the result of a whole lot of hard work from the Seaton In Bloom committee."

"They have taken notes from the judges last year and have really improved and it has been an absolute delight to visit."

"It has been particularly nice to see the community aspects of the Bloom project shine through and it was great to see the newly improved Jubilee Gardens, following the partnership between the town and district council."

Chairman of the Seaton In Bloom committee, Val Christmas, said: "I would like to give a huge thanks to all the volunteers, supporters and friends of Seaton In Bloom and members of the committee for their invaluable help in getting Seaton prepared for the judges."

"The town looked lovely and the hard work which had gone into the planting and caring for it was obvious."

"The judges were very impressed with everything they saw and were extremely complimentary about the 'It's Your Neighbourhood' areas. They commented that it was good to speak to very knowledgeable volunteers and very enthusiastic youngsters."

"Everywhere we went they noted the spotless condition and the community efforts which are making the town look so good."

"As I and the judges are well aware, your efforts continue during the whole year – not just at judging time – and I felt very proud of Seaton and all the good folks who give their time and expertise so readily to make the town more beautiful each year."

"The judges were also very pleased to see the massive amount of sponsorship of the tubs and hanging baskets from individuals and organisations in the town which, in their words, demonstrated the involvement of the whole community."

"Whatever the outcome at the awards ceremony in September, the judges' response was so positive that we can all be sure that we have improved on last year and are doing all the right things, but without the support which the Bloom committee receives from so many strands of the community, most of this would not happen."

Monaco by pedal power

A SEATON man is currently heading for Monaco on a bicycle. Mark Summerbee set off from Weybridge in Surrey on July 20th in a quest to raise money for Devon Air Ambulance Trust (DAAT).

Mark came up with the idea whilst visiting Brooklands Museum, the birthplace of British motorsport and aviation – and host of iconic cycling races in the 1930s.

He said: "I was standing at this fascinating home of motorsport, and what a brilliant place to start the race of a lifetime."

"I then also decided that the fitting place to finish was Monaco, the home of one of Formula 1's most famous races."

He is part of a 13-strong team taking on 830 miles of diverse terrains ranging from the wooded countryside of Surrey to the vast Alps mountain range.

Mark was keen to support DAAT and said: "Living in this lovely part of the world, and the vast areas that it covers, the service Devon Air Ambulance provides is invaluable, getting urgent medical assistance to people who need it fast."

"As we know, this operation comes at a price, and without the backing of the people this service could not survive."

Fun in the sun for Beer lifeboat week

SUPPORTERS of the Seaton, Beer and District RNLI gathered for the annual Beer Lifeboat Week, raising buckets of cash for charity.

The sunshine helped to give the group a boost, with the annual street collection alone raising £358.05.

The first Brew for the Crew had an added twist of lifeboat Zumba fun with local instructor, Johanna Morgan, and the popular coffee morning raised £370.41 including £55 from the dance session.

Meanwhile, 12 teams took part in the lifeboat week quiz, with winning team 'We Three' taking home a certificate and a bottle of wine. The night raised £125 and organisers thanked Dave and Kathy Hutchings for their roles as quiz master and score keeper.

AONB priorities for the next five years

THE East Devon Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB) Partnership is undertaking a management strategy review.

As part of the process, an opportunity for interested parties to find out what it's all about will be provided during a drop-in session in Sidford. The reviews, the most recent one undertaken in 2008, aim to bring the statutory management strategy up to date with the current context and issues in order to identify priorities for delivery over the next five years.

East Devon AONB chairman John Wilding MBE commented: "Public consultation will take place later this year, but we wanted to offer a 'heads-up' opportunity for anyone interested to come and see what the review is all about, what the partnership is doing and to see how they might help us shape the context of the review."

A drop-in session will be held at the Blue Ball Inn, Sidford, near Sidmouth, from 2pm-5pm on Wednesday July 24th. For further details, visit www.eastdevonaonb.org.uk

The eighth annual duck race day was exceptionally popular raising £595.74, and beginning with a display from Lyme Regis Lifeboat, 'Spirit of Loch Fyne.'

Crew members John Cable and John Broom came ashore to assist RNLI branch treasurer Eric Reynolds and committee member Ian Rangeley to start the duck races. Nine heats of yellow plastic ducks raced down Beer Brook and the first and second placed ducks from each heat took part in the grand final.

Prizes for the heat winners and grand final were provided by Beer businesses.

Pupils of Beer C of E Primary School entered the 'duck poster colouring competition' and the winner was Isabella Green of class one whilst Leo Gribble won the 'duck art competition.' The children received prizes for their entries and the competition was judged by the Francis family from Cheltenham.

Other events during the week included a tea dance in the Mariners Hall, which raised £92.50, a second Brew for the Crew raising £212.58 and performances from Jimmy and Jessie Purvis on the melodian, which raised £119.66.

Organisers of the week thanked all the volunteers and all who attended to support the various fundraising events. Thanks also went to Beer businesses who sponsored the duck races and gave prizes for the lifeboat week events: Anchor Inn, Bank House, Bay View Tea Rooms, Beer Fish and Chip Shop, Beer News, Beer Pharmacy, Beer Post Office, Beer Quarry Caves, Captains' Cottage, Chapples Tea Hut, Coco Beau, Colebrooke House, Dolphin Hotel, Ducky's Beach Cafe, Durham House Hotel, Jean Bartlett Cottage Holidays, Jimmy Green Marine, Lee Gibbs, Lilly Brown, Marine House at Beer, Pauls' Bakery and Cafe Napoli, Pecorama, Rock Villa Off Licence, Steamers Restaurant, The Seafood Platter Village Hair Shoppe and Woozies Deli.

Members of the Seaton, Beer and District RNLI are now looking forward to their next major event- their annual sponsored walk to be held in October. Volunteers are still needed for Sundays and relief duty at the sales kiosk at Beer. If you can help, please contact Audrey on (01297) 20048 or email audreytims@hotmail.co.uk.

New doors for the Guildhall?

AN OFFER has been made to help finance new front doors for Axminster Guildhall.

The offer was made to Axminster Town Council, and councillors were informed during the council's July meeting.

Town clerk Hilary Kirkcaldie told Pulman's View that she is currently unable to disclose further details.

The matter is expected to be discussed during the council's August meeting.

Council vacancy

ONE person has expressed an interest in being co-opted on to Axminster Town Council.

The vacancy arose when Ian Hall resigned, and a previous attempt to recruit a replacement drew a blank.

But during the council's July meeting, it was reported that one person has expressed an interest.

Town clerk Hilary Kirkcaldie said that the candidate will meet with selected council representatives and an announcement is expected to be made during the August meeting.

Arrested after man 'causes bottle fear'

AN AXMINSTER man was arrested and bailed after allegedly threatening another man with a bottle before resisting arrest.

The incident occurred in Church Street just after 7pm on Monday of last week.

Police have opened two logs in connection with the incident, headed 'cause fear or provocation of violence' and 'assault with intent to resist arrest'.

Witnesses describe a large police presence in the area and a constabulary spokesperson said that a 26-year-old man, with a bottle in his hand, allegedly threatened a 22-year-old outside a property in Church Street.

The spokesperson said: "They were known to each other, both had been drinking, and both are from Axminster."

Police arrived at the scene, and the spokesperson added: "A man allegedly assaulted a police officer whilst he was being arrested."

"A 26-year old man from Axminster was arrested in connection with these incidents and has been released on bail."

A-level college student looking for war veterans

AN AXMINSTER girl is seeking World War II veterans to interview for an A-Level project.

Kathleen Wheatley is studying at Richard Huish College in Taunton and will embark on what is known as an Extended Project Qualification.

She said: "In particular I would like to interview people who served in the RAF, but I would be delighted to speak to anyone who served in the armed forces or the merchant navy during World War II."

She can travel to appointments and anyone interested can call her on 01297 631 071 or 07843 904 389.

Alternatively, you can email her at kjwheat10@yahoo.co.uk

THE annual Minster summer fete in Axminster raised £1,500 for general church funds.

Deanery synod Simon Byworth said: "We are very grateful to everyone who supported us. It was a glorious day and a great social occasion."

The Rector, Reverend John Streeting echoed Mr By-

worth and said: "It was a lovely opportunity to meet on Minster Green, and we made a profit."

The event was held in splendid sunshine on Saturday, July 13th and the photo shows stallholders with some of the wares on offer.

Second death following Hunters Lodge crash

A NOTORIOUS stretch of the A35 was back in the news for all the wrong reasons last week.

A second person died on Wednesday of last week following an accident outside Hunters Lodge, near Axminster, a week earlier on Wednesday, July 10th.

A 90-year-old woman, who was a passenger in one of the vehicles, died in hospital from her injuries.

A previously reported, the accident involved a van and a car and happened on Wednesday, July 10th.

There were three people in the vehicle and one of them, 82-year-old Pamela Manning, from Harrow, was declared dead at the scene.

The identity of the woman who died in hospital has not yet been disclosed.

Another accident happened on Saturday, July 20th when a car and a motorcycle collided on the A35 at Hunters Lodge junction in the afternoon. Police said the collision happened at low speed.

The motorcycle's pillion passenger was treated at the scene and taken to hospital with non-life-threatening injuries.

After the accident on July 10th, MP Neil Parish wrote to the Highways Agency requesting a meeting to try to find a solution to the notorious piece of road. Speaking to Pulman's View last week, his office said it was still waiting for a reply.

Trinity Hill bag theft

POLICE have reiterated a plea with motorists not to leave belongings on display when leaving their vehicles.

A handbag, and its contents, was stolen from a car parked in Trinity Hill, near Axminster, at some point between 2pm and 2.30pm on Thursday, July 4th. Someone smashed a car window to grab the bag.

PCSO Andy Trott of Axminster Police said: "Don't leave personal belongings on view."

Anyone with information about the theft is asked to call the police switchboard on 101.

Health summit

A HEALTH summit has been called in Axminster by Northern, Eastern and Western (NEW) Devon Clinical Commissioning Group, which is responsible for buying a number of health services for the NHS.

A group spokesperson said: "The contract for these services is due for renewal next year and needs to be specified before Christmas.

"We would like to give you the opportunity to be involved in influencing the design of community services."

The health summit will be held in Axminster Guildhall on Thursday, August 1st, starting at 7pm.

Memory Café is growing stronger

"THREE years on and Axminster Memory Café is going stronger than ever." That was the upbeat message when the café celebrated its third birthday.

Formed three years ago by a volunteer group from the town's senior forum, the local Rotary club and local mental health care professionals, members meet on the third Monday of each month from 2.30pm to 4.30pm at Axminster Hospital's Conybeare Ward.

The third birthday was celebrated on Monday, July 15th.

Rotary spokesperson Bill Coltham said: "It was a celebration of three years of support to the sufferers and carers of those with memory problems, early dementia and Alzheimer's."

"Enjoying an afternoon of sing-a-long bingo and, sorting through a treasure trove of memories from the memory box, 20 or so clients and their supporters clapped as the birthday cake was cut by senior forum chairman Margaret Spencer-Brown and Jeanette Ward of Conybeare.

"New members are always welcome and can attend without notice on an afternoon meeting or just turn up for a chat to discuss your needs."

Wrong day

PULMAN'S View wishes to clarify that The Military Wives Choir Yeovilton and HMS Heron Royal Marine Band will play in Axminster Guildhall on Saturday, October 26th. In a recent issue we reported the correct date but wrong day of week.

Pupils work hard to complete mural

PRIMARY school pupils worked shifts to help complete the borders for the Webster's mural in Axminster.

A painting day was held at Axminster Primary School under the supervision of art teacher Dee Howgarth.

The school has been heavily involved with Axminster Arts' project to spruce up the derelict former garage and eyesore in Axminster town centre.

Pupils' fundraising has generated a total of £300 and the school has adopted the Webster's mural initiative as its community project.

Dee said that everyone from Foundation Year to Year 6 helped out on painting day.

The mural, depicting Axminster's history and townscape, is being co-ordinated by Axminster Arts.

The centre piece of the mural was put in place last summer, and phase two is expected to follow shortly.

Project co-ordinator Tim Leat said: "Steve Fisher (the artist) has got a few bits to finish and it should then just be a case of varnishing before we put up this section."

Beer at its best for Bloom judges' visit

THE village of Beer was looking at its very best for this year's South West in Bloom visit, when judges Steve Clampin and Richard Budge arrived for their competition tour.

Welcomed by members of the Beer Horticultural Society, the visit was the first in several years where Beer could be seen in full sunshine, adding to the hard work and efforts from the green-fingered group.

The pair of judges enjoyed a long tour around the village and some of its most beautiful spots from the beach to community projects and private gardens.

The tour included a visit to the allotments, which Clinton Devon Estates have generously allowed the congregational church Sunday school to use.

There were also visits to some of the other younger villagers, such as Beer C of E Primary School and Puffins playground.

Other tour highlights included the many floral displays around the town, particularly those produced by John and Diane Lang outside St Michael's Church and a visit to Mary Hawker's dream garden – a community project, produced by many villagers as a surprise for Mary earlier this year.

Jim Newton explained the fishing practices of the Beer fishermen and Nora Jagers showed off the Fine Foundation Centre to the judges, who were also very impressed by the excellent condition of Charlie's Yard and the floral displays there.

The It's Your Neighbourhood (IYN) aspect of the competition came in the form of the church sculptures, Mary's Garden, The Dolphin Hotel, The Bomb

Shelter and the Sailing Club where a reception for the judges was held.

During the reception, the judges were also met by a number of other community players including Martin Richards, the chairman of Beer Parish Council; representatives of the sailing club, Mike Green and Mike Ransom; Annie Boalch of the Beer BAG project; village handyman, Kevin Hale; Tina Bishop of the congregational church; and Avril Cook, horticultural society member.

Bloom judge, Mr Budge, said: "I have really enjoyed my visit to Beer. The village was clean, tidy and colourful and I can see why it is such an important place for tourists to visit, especially during the summer months."

Judge, Mr Clampin, also enjoyed his visit, which was the second in two years.

He added: "It has been nice to see how the community have come together for the Bloom efforts, especially with the youth involvement in the village."

"Beer Horticultural Society has made definite improvements and are moving onwards and upwards, and I would like to thank Ursula Makepeace and the many volunteers for taking on board last year's comments and making such vast changes to beautifying Beer."

Chairman of the Beer Horticultural Society, Ursula Makepeace, commented: "I was delighted with the way in which the inspection tour progressed and the judges seemed impressed with all our hard work. Thank you to all who supported us in this year's competition. The results will be announced at the South West in Bloom presentation in Truro on September 19th."

Charity open garden

A CHARITY open garden event is to be held at Olive Tree House, Beer on Sunday, August 4th from 2pm until 5pm.

The garden overlooking the village and sea has been re-designed and planted over the last five years and all are welcome to come along and enjoy the views.

There will be refreshments, ice creams, a raffle, books, bric-a-brac and plant stalls. Wheelchair access is available and dogs on leads are welcome, but there is limited parking on the street.

Entry is £1 and accompanied children are free; all proceeds will support Hospiscare and Arthritis Research UK. For more information, call Gill on 01297 20717

ADVERTISERS' ANNOUNCEMENT

OWNERS of a popular gastro pub in Beer are celebrating after a successful first year, following a name change to the Seafood Platter.

The Hunt family are really pleased with how the business has taken off since the re-launch of the venue, winning a number of awards and gaining a reputation as a top food pub through bodies such as Taste of the West and the well-known Fish2Fork ratings.

The family have been running the pub for 22 years, first arriving at the premises in 1990 when it was named The Barrel O'Beer.

Customers are able to see where their food comes from, with an extensive menu and supplier list on show, highlighting a wide range of suppliers from Seaton and the Lyme Bay to Luscombe Organic Produce and Christopher Piper Wines, based near Ottery St Mary.

Supporting sustainability for both the environment and the local food market, a major philosophy of the restaurant is supporting the 'sustainable fish fight,' serving only fresh fish from the Lyme Bay area, as well as only using free range, traditionally reared meats from local suppliers.

The kitchen team also shows a major commitment to making food freshly on the premises, with homemade deserts and daily baked bread, whilst all other food is sourced from as close to Beer as possible.

Manager of The Seafood Platter, Luke Hunt, commented: "We are really happy to have had such a brilliant year since refurbishing the building and renaming the business, The Seafood Platter."

"We have had a very successful time and are becoming more and more recognised for being a top food pub."

"We aim to provide a friendly and professional service, with only the highest standards of food, using locally sourced, seasonal produce and freshly made dishes created by our award winning chefs."

"We hope people continue to support us in the future and we can have yet another year of success."

Old fashioned fun on the beach

SEATON beach welcomed the return of deckchairs and a bouncy castle as part of a project to breath life into the beach for the summer.

The new activities have been put in place close to Fisherman's Gap as part of a 'Summer Fun' initiative launched by Seaton Town Development Team and Seaton Town Council.

Town Mayor, Cllr Gaynor Sedgwick, and Cllr Heather Sanham were at the beach early on Saturday morning to launch the activities, which will continue every weekend throughout the summer weather permitting.

Charges for hiring deck chairs and for the bouncy castle have been kept low so that as many people as possible can take advantage of them.

It has been some time since deckchairs were on the beach at Seaton and beachgoers were lining up to enjoy them.

Karin Frewin, Marketing and Events Co-ordinator for Seaton, said: "We're really pleased to be able to offer these activities on the beach this summer."

"The town development team and town council are working hard to enliven Seaton and we hope that people will enjoy the Summer Fun initiatives this year."

In addition to the bouncy castle and deck chairs for hire, there will be many activities this summer including Tai Chi by the sea, town markets, and a whole series of Saturday and midweek events in the town organised by Seaton Town Council and its youth and recreation committee.

End of year trip for Beer pupils

■ Children from Puffins playgroup in Beer and reception class children from Beer C of E Primary School enjoyed some fun in the sun, with a special visit to the beach. The two groups joined forces for a special end of year trip, where they took part in a number of activities including story reading, chalking, creating stone sculptures and a scavenger hunt. They are pictured on the trip.

Busking competition returns

CARNIVAL organisers in Seaton are calling on local musicians to take part in the town's second annual carnival busking competition, with a slot at the carnival variety night as the top prize.

The competition, which is open to acoustic musicians, street entertainers and performers of all ages, will be held on August 30th as part of the annual carnival week celebrations in the town.

Winners will go forward to perform at the town hall, alongside acts including top duo Eclipse, Michael Douglas in a tribute to Neil Diamond and comedy vocalist, Allan Robert.

Last year, local brother and sister acoustic duo Six Days scooped the

Organisers will award certificates in a range of categories, including best band, best individual, and best junior.

There will also be a 'Spirit of Carnival' award for the musician who collects the most money for charity and puts most effort into their performance by way of fancy dress.

Competition organiser, Jon Croose, said: "Last year the standard was really high, so we are looking forward to seeing who comes out of the woodwork this year."

"It doesn't matter if you are eight years old or 80, or whether you have played in public before or not. We want to give everyone a chance to have a go and fill the streets of Seaton with music and entertainment."

Anyone who wants to enter the busking competition should contact Jon for an entry form by e-mail at jfc208@exeter.ac.uk or you can call carnival secretary, Marie Churchill, on 01297 22732.

Junior entrants must be aged under 16 and have their parents' written consent.

All performers must register in advance and pay an individual registration fee of £5, which will go to carnival charities.

The competition is open to non-amplified performers only.

Fears Stockland will lose only pub for good

CONCERN is growing that Stockland will lose its pub for good.

The King's Arms is currently closed and, although the building's owner (Horatio Properties Guernsey Ltd.) has presented a combined residential/pub proposal, many locals are not convinced.

About 100 villagers attended a meeting on Wednesday, July 17th where the owner outlined a plan understood to involve housing on the site.

The pub would be retained minus the dining room, skittle alley and garden, with only seven parking spaces allocated for customers.

Speaking as a concerned resident, Cathy Gardner expressed doubt, saying: "If it is so small I doubt it can make any money, it would not be viable."

"You need the size and car parking."

Another concerned resident, who did not wish to be named, said: "We are investigating what we can do before a planning application is submitted."

"I think there can be quite a strong lobby put up against the application when it is submitted."

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

Stockland Parish Council has already applied for the building to be listed as an Asset of Community Value under the The Community Right to Bid (part of The Localism Act).

The legislation empowers local communities to request that local assets (land or buildings) are listed as Assets of Community Value.

In short, should an asset be put on the market, a listing would delay a sale for a fixed period of time to allow the community group involved to put together its own bid. However, a listing does not restrict to whom the asset owner can sell, nor at what price.

In The Community Right to Bid application, the parish council wrote: Like any small village, Stockland depended on its pub as an important social centre for the community (it is currently closed).

"Stockland has already lost its shop and post office, losing the pub would be a major blow to residents and affect quality of life and amenity of the parish."

"Although the economic times are now more difficult there are thriving pubs in the area where the tenants/owners run the business appropriately."

"If the community were able to purchase the freehold they would look to partner with a suitable tenant to run the business."

"The community does not intend to run the pub themselves, although some volunteer work to support a shop on the premises may be possible

By partnering with a tenant, the community could ensure that costs are kept down whilst the business is built up.

A long-term return on investment would be sought but linked to profitability

"The parish council have not yet identified potential investors and/or sources of funding but are confident that a credible proposal could be prepared and a suitable operating partner, ideally with a track record in the hospitality industry, identified."

The matter is expected to be discussed again when the parish council meets on July 29th.

■ THE early years children at St Andrew's Primary School in Chardstock enjoyed their annual summer visit to Pecorama. Accompanied by all the staff and many parents, the children had a wonderful day out, enjoying the sunshine and play opportunities at Pecorama. Among other things, Gary the Clown gave a performance based on making sound with vibration and children enjoyed face painting (right). There was also a percussion display, giving the young visitors an opportunity to play lots of different drums. School administrator Mandy Slingsby said: "The most rewarding was probably the miniature train ride. The children spent the next morning drawing fantastic pictures of their experiences during the outing. A special thank you to the friends of the school who funded the cost of the coach."

Solar powered fun

■ CHILDREN from Hawkchurch Primary School made the most of the recent sunshine by learning all about solar energy, after having five solar panels installed on the school roof free of charge. Following the installation by AEE Renewables, who also worked on the nearby new solar farm, the children were given a presentation on electricity and how solar energy works. They then went outside where they were impressed with a small solar panel on wheels (pictured above), which rolled around the playground when in the sun, and a solar powered radio (pictured below).

How it all began...

IN 1943 whilst war raged across Europe and air raids devastated towns and cities throughout Britain, the Red Cross made an urgent appeal for money to replenish their funds largely depleted because of the enormous demands the conflict had made upon them. The appeal made throughout County Councils and fed to Parish Councils was eagerly embraced by all sections of the community. In Axmouth a public meeting was called and a Red Cross fund raising committee was formed, led by a young Jim Cross and Len Weekes, a gardener at Stedcombe Manor. They decided that a grand fete was needed to lift the spirits and raise the much needed cash for this crucial part of the war effort.

At this point they were invited to hold the fete at Stedcombe Manor, the superbly sited William and Mary House, by its then owner, Miss Stephens. The fete was an enormous success and deemed to have been such a good day that it would be repeated annually as a flower show. The Axmouth Flower Show had come into being. Each year a great array of home made goods such as rationing would allow were on sale, children's sports, produce auction and pets shows filled the programme.

Over the following years the show raised money for the soldiers and seamen's charities and when the hostilities ceased the show combined with the Village Produce Association, formed as part of the Dig for Victory campaign. The show enjoyed enormous support in the immediate post-war year (now held in Webbers campfield). However the rise of convenience foods and the general decline in vegetable growing meant that the Flower Show had gone into decline by the early eighties and at one low point was held in the village hall car park. However the offer of a field in the centre of the village, on an annual basis from Lady Loveridge and her late husband, Sir John, plus the enthusiastic efforts of the committee meant that the show has gone from strength to strength in recent years.

Axmouth Village show returns to

The Axmouth Village Show is an annual event taking place on Saturday 27th July 2013, with a focus on local produce, crafts and most of all family enjoyment of our wonderful village.

The Village Show is run by a group of volunteers from the local area, and each year they aim to put on a great event and at the same time raise funds for local organisations. The committee plans each year to make the most of the wonderful venue at Coombe Field and aims to provide an excellent exhibition of local produce, flowers, photography, crafts and creativity alongside a range of stalls, activities and fun.

For details on the schedule of exhibits you can enter, please visit the Axmouth Village Show website, www.villageshow.co.uk.

The special guests of honour this year to open the Show will be Mr Ernest Fox and his wife Hildegard.

Mr Fox is a former headmaster of Colyton Grammar School, and they have both been closely associated with the village, especially the Church for many years now. Village Show Chairman, Robert Sweetland said - "Its an honour to have them to

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

Father Michael Koppel, Axminster, leads this week:

Some years ago, an elderly friend of mine remarked to me that she had recently read the Bible from cover to cover.

Knowing that she wasn't a Christian – at least not in any ordinary sense of the word – I was curious to discover what impression her reading had made on her. My enquiry was met with a pensive silence. And in a way, that's hardly surprising.

For what is one to make of the wide-ranging collection of works to be found between the covers of our Bible, coming from the pens of around 100 authors writing over a period of about 1,000 years?

Can there be any one theme which gives unity to all this diversity? Well, as a matter of fact, there is, and that theme is: Christ.

He himself said that he had come, not to abolish the law or the prophets, but to complete them. And if the scriptures, including the Old Testament, are really about him, it follows that we won't be able to make head or tail of them unless we recognise that he is the key. No wonder my friend was silent when I asked what the Bible meant to her.

Last week we were unable to give a firm indication about the Anglican women bishops deliberations but we now know that sufficient progress was not made to be acceptable. It is perhaps possible that discussion will turn to how to consecrate women bishops rather than whether it should happen at all.

The Bishop of Truro has raised the growing reliance of people on food banks which he described as a "scandal," and reported 20 such banks in his county alone, and urged government intervention to help.

Elsewhere, the Church of England has formed a new mega Diocese of West Yorkshire and the Dales (Leeds) which brings together in one, the people of four dioceses, thus helping the churches involved.

Ottery St Mary have just concluded their Festival of "all that they have to offer" including different foods on different days. The finale was a festival concert at the Parish Church with the Silver Band.

Going east, the Vicar of Uplyme, the Reverend Gavin Tyte, has been exhibiting at the Lyme Regis Horticultural Society's Summer Show. In a previous year Gavin beat River Cottage's Hugh Fearnley-Whittingstall to first place in the crude class.

Coming west, Combyne Flower Festival will be held at their 13th century church, Friday, July 26th to Sunday, July 28th is open daily from 10am to 5pm, with a Festival Praise Service on Sunday at 6pm in aid of church funds. Access is off the route A3052 and there are refreshments – enquiries to 01297 443936.

Combe Raleigh Flower Festival, themed "Heaven's Above", is open July 26th to July 28th in the church of Saint Nicholas from 10.30am to 5pm on Friday and Saturday, and 12.30pm to 6pm on Sunday. Parking and refreshments available at Songs of Praise Service on Sunday evening at 6.30pm.

FESTIVAL director of Sidmouth Folk Week, John Braithwaite, is looking forward to this year's event, which will be held from August 2nd to 9th.

A Cornishman by birth, John now lives in Canterbury but has been involved in the Sidmouth festival since he first visited the event 35 years ago.

Now retired, John worked in the information technology industry, latterly running software development companies, and is married with three daughters, all of whom will be attending the festival with him.

● WHEN did you first become involved with the festival?

My involvement goes back about 35 years when the family first went to the festival. Since then I have been most years, including as a performer and a spell as a main arena compere which was both nerve-wracking and exciting.

● WHAT is your favourite thing about the event?

The huge variety of workshops, shows and artists in such a beautiful setting. There is something for everyone; dance enthusiasts of every persuasion, those who love singing from solo to choirs, I could go on and on... it's a hidden gem.

● ARE there any new attractions at this year's festival?

The programme changes completely every year so there are so many new artists to experience. I am looking forward to seeing Maddy Prior and Spooky Men's Chorale from Australia again, and the new artists in the fRoots magazine-curated 'Cellar Full of Folkadelia' events at Kennaway House.

● HOW would you encourage others to get involved with the festival?

Once experienced, never forgotten! It's a seaside holiday with a festival included, or vice versa. With over 700 events and workshops there is something here for you, believe me! To make it easy to try the festival for the first time, we offer day and weekend tickets as well as those for the whole week, so you can give it a go without having to commit to a whole week. You can even just get a ticket for a single event.

● WHAT are your other personal interests?

I love all sorts of musical genres and types of dance. I'm very keen on sport, particularly rugby and golf, and am a member of my local clubs as well as a strong support of our arts centre.

● WHAT do you like about the Sidmouth area?

What is there not to like? It's very beautiful and unique with its tall red cliffs; the town itself has kept the charm of a seaside resort without being over-commercialised.

● WHAT do you think the area is missing? More flat green spaces in and around the town to make running a festival an easier task!

● WHERE is your ideal holiday destination and why?

I love the West Country for its beautiful varied coastlines, but I can be persuaded to go Madeira and some of the Canary Isles.

● WHAT would you do if you won the Lottery?

Buy a house in Sidmouth and fund some new areas of the festival that we would love to get into.

Women's Institutes ROUND UP

SEATON

ON a very hot Tuesday, July 16th Seaton WI were please with a good turnout at their monthly meeting.

To remind members of dates and venues of forthcoming events, new committee member Margaret Nicholas produced a comprehensive information leaflet for everyone, which was very well received. Business matters, correspondence and finances were discussed and, after tea, speaker Alan Nicholas gave an interesting talk and slide show on "Lighthouses in Devon".

Nicholas worked for Trinity House in London for many years as a draughtsman and engineer and has visited all of the South West's lighthouses, some many times. It was a fascinating topic.

Competition - "Best Picture of a Lighthouse" - 1st Doreen Batchelor, 2nd Zelma Lindsay-Smith, 3rd Mary Fone.

Flower of the month - 1st Sue Walker, 2nd Sheila Rumble, 3rd Doreen Batchelor.

The group will be having a break during August with the next meeting on September 17th at 2.15pm at Seaton Methodist Church Hall. The talk will be on Brass Bands. Please come and join us, you will be most welcome.

COLYFORD

COLYFORD WI celebrated its birthday in style.

President Margaret Nicholson welcomed visitors from neighbouring WIs including Axmouth, Beer, Colyton, Musbury and Whitford, and Seaton and also Colyford members both old and new to the July birthday meeting.

The business part of the meeting was kept to a minimum to enable the maximum amount of time for the entertainment and the party.

The entertainment was a lively display of country dancing by the Colyford Country Dancers led by member Barbara Coombes and her husband David.

They were joined in some of the dances by a few of the more energetic WI members, and then demonstrated some more complicated dances including a square dance.

Everyone then tucked into a delicious tea all supplied by the members. A special birthday cake had been made and decorated by Wendy Mills, and was ceremoniously cut by Colyford WI's oldest member Anne Cocker.

There will not be a meeting in August but members hope to hold a cream tea in the garden of member Sue Boorman on August 7th. The next meeting will be on Wednesday, September 4th in Colyford Memorial Hall at 2.30pm. A talk will be held on the "History of the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis" by the theatre's artistic director Harry Long.

Visitors are always made very welcome.

AWLISCOSMBE

ON a hot, summers evening Awliscombe WI members were entertained by "Your Captain Speaking", an interesting account of the life of an airline pilot.

Ian White recounted his lifelong interest in planes from a very early age. He gained his private pilot's license at the early age of 17 and a half whilst still at school and, by the age of 23, received his commercial license.

Thereby started a career of 42 years working for Island Airways, Boac, Freddie Laker and Virgin just to name a few.

Mr White spoke about some of his most important passengers over the years, including members of the royal family and world statesmen.

He brought along models of just a few of the planes he had flown, starting with a two-seater chipmunk and latterly a Boeing 747.

One member asked him if he still likes travelling to which he replied: "Yes, but mainly with my bus pass!"

The competition for a small arrangement in a jar lid was won by Rita Tyers and the tea hostesses were S. Hyde, M. Wright and V. Dawson.

KILMINGTON

AFTER apologies were read members started Kilmington

Choir hold Beehive fundraising concert

THE Axe Valley Community Choir was very happy to perform a concert as part of a series of events to raise funds for the new Beehive Community Centre being built in Honiton.

The concert was held in St Paul's Church, Honiton, on Saturday, July 23rd when the lively choir set feet tapping with a joyful mixture of love songs, pop, songs from shows and more serious pieces. A dramatic piece was "Rhythm of Life".

WI's July meeting with Dawn Canham telling them of her time in the theatre world with costumes.

After secretarial work, which she hated, she went to London where she was able to visit theatres frequently and enjoyed shows, especially the costume side of it.

She came back to Devon, married and had children, all the time dreaming of theatre work.

She started by helping in dramatic groups, then getting a job helping sew on buttons at the Northcott. As her capabilities were recognised she progressed and was offered other jobs in costume making.

Dawn then took a degree course while working in the Northcott and gradually secured jobs in other places having become well known in the theatre world.

She brought with her her collection of beautifully made period costumes including Georgian, Victorian and a very recognisable "Jane Austen" dress. Members were enthralled and Dawn was warmly thanked by Mary Seward.

It was agreed that members Barbara, Anne Hiett, Mary Seward and Christine will attend a Speakers Preview at Longdown in September.

The club's entry in the Axe Vale Festival, although not winning, had good individual marks which will encourage members for next year.

The Food Crafts and Skills group will be making decorated boxes in the pavillion on August 5th, the group's Mystery Outing is on August 15th and the annual trip is to Bickleigh Mill on September 19th. There are still places available on both these trips.

The next meeting on September 12th meeting will include Lucy Channon talking on "Heirlooms of the Future" and, in October, member will welcome Derek Stevens to talk about his boyhood in World War II. This will be an open meeting on October 10th at 7pm in the Village Hall.

OFFWELL

THE 60th anniversary of the formation of Offwell WI was celebrated in style at the July meeting in the village hall.

Over 50 past and present members, together with friends from other WIs, were welcomed by president Vanessa Smith with glasses of bubbly, Pimm's or fruit punch before enjoying an evening of fun and laughter.

A buffet supper was set up down the middle of the hall to which the ladies did justice after a few games of Irish bingo. Among the winners was Diana Walker, the vicar's wife.

An iced fruit cake was made by Joan Francis and this was cut by past president Kath Abbot before the evening ended with a singsong led by Margaret Le Mesurier at the piano.

A most enjoyable evening.

THORNCOMBE

ON July 9th Thorncombe WI were entertained by David Smith, who spoke about his life in aviation.

He had begun his career in catering but on a flight home from holiday decided to apply to become a BEA steward.

He trained for a year on a Comet 4B before starting his duties on board.

David had many humorous anecdotes to share with members, some concerning the many celebrities who flew with him.

The competition for aviation memorabilia was won by Julie Honeybourne, and the Flower of the Month by Barbara Barnes.

The next meeting will be at 7.30pm on September 10th in Thorncombe Village Hall, when Victoria Bates will speak on "Harvest Fruits and Flowers". The competition will be for a favourite vase.

New members and visitors will be most welcome. Contact Julia Snellcock on 01460 30135 for further details.

Encouraging to see understanding and practical suggestions on gulls

■ IT was encouraging to see a shift towards some understanding and practical suggestions to dissuade gulls from rooftop nesting, in your correspondent Vivienne Coates' latest letter (July 16th).

It will hopefully encourage other gull-haters to pause and think about these birds as more than "things" to be got rid of. Though in this and numerous other letters to your local newspaper, Mrs Coates persists in her call for a "sensible cull". To whom, one wonders.

But there is a long way to go if we are to reduce gull-nuisance, because the problem has been caused by human activity and has been mounting for years.

Landfill sites heaving with waste food; careless disposal of household waste in the street and our expectation to snack dawn-to-dusk in gardens and at the seafront in summer, at the very time gulls are desperately searching for food to feed their young.

And there will always be someone feeding them, despite all that we know, somewhere nearby, believing it to be kind.

Finally, to answer your correspondent's question do I encounter gull behaviour? Yes! They are all around, and I enjoy hearing them, seeing them in flight and watching them parenting their young. Other birds thrive alongside.

I reserve my "enough is enough" (Mrs Coates' regular cry about gull nuisance) for the real threats facing our environment and our wildlife, not from gulls, but from human beings.

KATHY HACKMAN
(by email)

Squawking gulls need to be culled

■ WE have to live with the squawking gull, far too many to count.

While this hot weather is on, we've had to close every window in the house, including bedrooms, because of the terrible noise. No sleep is the result.

The garden at the top of our road is covered every morning with litter, because people have filled the bin and put the rest in carrier bags at the side.

They have gone away happy because they have tied away their rubbish from the beach, but the gulls have torn them all open and dragged stuff out of the bin.

They need culling.

M. BOWERS,
Seaton

Plenty of bird species and occasional seagull!

■ IN reply to letters about bird population: I see blue and great tits, robins, chaffinches, blackbirds, sparrows, starlings, goldfinches and greenfinches – all regularly.

Later, there will be green woodpeckers, blackcaps, siskins, redwings, bullfinches and others; it all depends on habitat and bird feeders. There is the occasional seagull!

Cycling and dog's mess ruin seafront summer experience

■ WE have a beach hut on Seaton Esplanade. The weather has been superb this year, it has been lovely to sit and watch the world go by and get tanned.

Blissful, but then we come to the annoyances, young men and boys riding their bikes as fast as they can in and out of the pedestrians. It is "no cycling" along there, "No Cycling" is written on the floor as they ride onto the Esplanade. "Oh, I didn't see it" is the usual excuse.

Then there are the people out for a day's ride, they also seem to think that exempts them from obeying the rule. But what really ticks me off is mum and dad out with the children. "Oh, it doesn't matter about them they are only children." What sort of example is that to their children? The usual one of only obeying rules if it suits you.

The other annoyance is that old chestnut – dogs. The number of people who will not put their dog on the lead and let it wander all over the place, even into people's huts. They allow them to urinate down the front of the huts so that the owners have to sit beside the mess or wash it down. A lot of us have our grandchildren running about with out their shoes on.

Then we come to the poo. Everyone, I thought, knew about that but no there are always a few piles for the unwary to stand in. Is it too much to ask people to walk their dogs on the beach below the High Water Line so the residue left after most of it has been picked up, is washed away? Apparently it is.

There are a lot more notices all along the Esplanade asking people to keep their dogs on the lead at all times, that's another one for only obeying if it suits.

Consider effect of summer balloon launches

■ THIS is the time of year for fetes, shows and other outdoor celebrations.

The committee of the Axe Vale & District Conservation Society are appealing to any organisations that are considering releasing balloons as part of their event to think again.

Many released balloons don't burst but float back down to earth where they pose a serious threat to our wildlife and cause litter problems, while other animals may get entangled in ribbons and strings.

Balloons that fall into the sea can be swallowed by creatures such as fish and turtles, which may die as a result. Those that burst can also cause similar problems to our environment.

We suggest that organisers consider alternatives. Some ideas for these can be seen on the website of the Marine Conservation Society at www.mcsuk.org.

NEWS FROM THE VILLAGES

Southleigh cyclist to take on Olympic racing course

A SOUTHLEIGH man cut down on junk food to such an extent that he is fit to take part in a cycling race on the London 2012 Olympic course.

Alex Burges will be on the starting line for Prudential Ride London-Surrey 100 on Sunday, August 4th.

The 100-mile event is part of a cycling festival set up as "a true legacy" of the 2012 Games.

Mr Burges said: "I was inspired by my son competing in long jump in a national event at Newcastle.

"I noticed I was looking at all these athletes at this event and looked at myself, looking overweight and feeding my face with junk food,

"I was 16.5 stone and now I'm 14 stone."

His cycling experience started in August last year.

Speaking on his training regime, the 42-year-old said: "It is generally cycling around Seaton doing anything from 10 miles to 50 miles, sometimes I cycle further.

"The events I have done ranged from 60 miles to 100 miles.

"I choose to ride the London 100 as it follows the Olympic cycling course from the Olympic village at Stratford and travels through London to Surrey and back to London, finishing at The Mall in front of Buckingham Palace."

He will be joined by about 20,000 cyclists and hopes to raise a lot of money for a worthy cause. He explained: "I'm doing this event for Kidney

■ CYCLING JUNKIE: Alex Burges

Research as my brother in law (Jason Pring) needs a new kidney because the kidney his mother donated in 1981 needs replacing."

Mr Burges has a fundraising target of £750.

Anyone wishing to help him reach it can do so through www.justgiving.com/Alex-Burges-cycleRideLondon100.

The 123rd Honiton Agricultural Show

THE 123rd Honiton Agricultural Show takes place on Thursday, August 1st 2013.

The Grand Parade is one of the many highlights of the main ring activities where the day's livestock winners proudly parade. The 2013 main ring will be a hive of activity with fantastic acts such as the Squibb Freestyle Stunt Show a spectacular motocross show performed by triple winning British FMX rider Jamie Squibb with phenomenal tricks.

Organisers are delighted to welcome back the Ridgeside Lurcher Display Team, a superb act where lurchers will race at full speed chasing the electric lure, together with an informative and humorous commentary by Phill Gibbons. Public participation is welcomed and the offer to compete with your own dogs whatever their breed! The highlight of this brilliant act is a race between lurchers and a hawk – a spectacle not to be missed.

The Honiton Show organisers are delighted to announce a new event for the main ring: Eagle Heights Eagle and Vulture Display. Watch in amazement as "Kayla" the Bald Eagle soars above the crowd and you'll be very amused to watch "Posh" and "Becks" the white-backed Vultures gallop across the main ring. There is also the beautiful Barn Owl who floats majestically amongst the crowds.

The lower field incorporates all that is countryside with hurdle making, ferret racing, a blacksmiths guild and a trip down memory lane with a vintage tractor section with over 100 vehicles on display. The Honiton Show plays host to the West of England Hound Show, a show within a show, which attracts a huge following countrywide. There is also the wonderful dog show, comprising both pedigree and fun classes for the pet pooch. If chickens are your interest The Show has a fantastic Poultry show and sale.

Come and meet two fascinating otters, Belinda and Rudi, and learn all about them from their enthusiastic owner, Daphne Neville.

There is new entertainment for children with Professor Twister's Punch and Judy, as seen on the hugely popular and wildly acclaimed television series Downton Abbey.

With over 400 trade stands, including crafts, shopping and a fabulous food hall there really is something for everyone. There will be a huge and diverse range of food courts to tickle your taste buds, with local caterers offering the very best produce; why not start with a delicious bacon roll and end the day with a refreshing Pimms from local Otter Brewery.

The Honiton Show prides itself on being a truly traditional agricultural show with a unique atmosphere it brings new and traditional agriculture together so make a note in the diary, August 1st, the Honiton Show team all look forward to welcoming you. Don't forget accompanied under 16's are free. Make savings and purchase your advance tickets now for just £12.50 per adult for a whole day of entertainment.

Livestock classes

THE Honiton Show fully supports and encourages the exhibiting of cattle and sheep. There will be classes for the following breeds and respected panel judges from recognised breed societies.

Many breed societies offer their own special awards and rosettes to prize winners. Traditionally a Grand Parade of livestock is held in the afternoon in the Main Ring. This is a great spectacle for all to see the livestock exhibited together in one ring.

Young Farmers Classes: The show is a big supporter of Young Farmers Clubs throughout the local region. Livestock classes are held in both cattle and sheep sections for calf classes, young leaders and junior handlers.

Dairy Cattle: Ayrshire, Channel Island Breeds, Holstein

Beef Cattle: Ruby Red Devon, South Devon, Aberdeen Angus, Hereford, Limousin, Dexter, Continental Pure Breeds

Sheep: Devon & Cornwall Longwool, Devon Horn & Poll Dorset, Greyface Dartmoor, Hampshire Down, Jacob, Suffolk, Bleu du Maine, Charollais, Rouge de l'Ouest, Texel, Other Native & Continental Breeds, Dorset Down.

Equine classes

THE Honiton Show is a firm date in the showing calendar for most West Country based exhibitors.

The horse section of the show has grown considerably and holds classes in all disciplines. The show organisers aim to invite top quality judges from recognised breed societies and organisations throughout the country.

The show affiliates to most of the popular Breed Societies.

Equine Classes for: Hunter Breeding; Ridden Hunters - Lightweight/Heavyweight/Small/Local; Cobs; Riding Horses; Coloureds Ridden & in Hand; Working Hunters; Pure, Part & Anglo Arabs In Hand; Mountain & Moorland Ponies In Hand & Ridden; Show Hunter Ponies; Lead Rein/First Ridden Ponies; Working Hunter Ponies; Young Handlers; Private Driving; Heavy Horses; Spotted Ponies; Local/Family Ponies; Retired/Retrained Racehorses

A show steeped in history

THE first Honiton Show was held in 1890, the 54th year of Queen Victoria's reign, in fields on Bramble Hill, Honiton.

The Association was then named The Honiton Union District Store Cattle and Poultry Association. Its first president was Viscount Sidmouth. That year the show was held on 2nd October, with admission costing one shilling and a grand after show dinner at the Dolphin Hotel.

Thirty years and a world war later, in 1920 the show moved to Dowell Street and the association was re-named Honiton Union District Agricultural Association. After the second world war in 1946 the classes included Labourers Long Service Awards and judging of the Hunting Hounds. Poultry classes disappeared and dairy cattle were very low on entries; This was due to the rationing taking effect during the war. The year 1948 saw the introduction of The West Of England Hound Show. This was the beginning of what is now one of the largest and most prestigious Hound Shows in the country.

The association, now known as Honiton & District Agricultural Association, celebrated its centenary in 1990 as a limited company and held a special show to commemorate with some 290 trade stands and compared with closer to 400 in 2003. The association has come a long way since 1890 and is ready for the next one hundred years!

Hot Pennies Day TODAY – 23 July 2013

A BRIEF HISTORY – Honiton Hot Pennies Ceremony dates back to the 13th Century, when Honiton was granted a Royal Charter, the ceremony remained unbroken for several hundred years, and to this day has always taken place on the first Tuesday after July 19th.

The proceedings begin at 12noon from the Old Pannier Market, with The Town Crier (accompanied by The Mayor and local dignitaries) hoisting up a garlanded pole with a gloved hand at the top, proclaiming, "No man may be arrested so long as this glove is up." This was done to ensure that everyone would come to Honiton for the fair, which followed the ceremony, without fear of being arrested for their debts; they would otherwise have stayed away.

The first pennies are thrown from the balcony of the former Assembly Rooms above The Old Pannier Market and then a procession follows the garlanded pole to a number of Public Houses from which "hot pennies" are thrown to hoards of scrabbling children. The pole is kept on show for the remainder of "fair week" at the last Public House.

The reason behind the pennies being thrown hot was that the affluent people who threw out the pennies took great delight in seeing the peasants burn their fingers whilst collecting them.

Nowadays the pennies are merely warm!

Charter Day Saturday 27th July 2013

ON the Saturday directly after Hot Pennies, Honiton holds an annual, all day, Charter Day funded by the profits from the street market. Commemorating the signing of the market charter over 750 years ago.

The town is abuzz with people dressed in costume and shop windows decorated to celebrate this event. Shopkeepers, market traders and local people are encouraged to wear historical costume for the day.

The traders in particular take care to show their support for the timeless success of their street market by decorating their stalls and appearing in medieval dress.

During the day the centre of Honiton enjoys music, entertainment, charity stalls, a town crier competition and much more.

Honiton Weekly Street Market

The market is held along the wide High Street of this historic Lace Town every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday throughout the year.

The market days have contributed to the vibrancy and appeal of Honiton since the granting of our charter in 1257.

Stalls offering fresh produce, flowers, plants, clothing, jewellery, bric-a-brac, crafts and antiques are set up to bring an added dimension to Honiton's fine Georgian High Street.

One can seek bargains among the variety of stalls with their backdrop of market town shops, including many offering antiques and antiquarian books. There are welcoming cafes and bars in which to rest awhile.

Within easy reach of the main A30 trunk road, with large car parks, a short walk from Honiton railway station.

So make a date on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays and enjoy East Devon's major street market at Honiton.

If you would like to join our market as a trader, please contact the Market Manager, Tony McCollum, on 07980 922696 and your call will be returned.

Fun for all at the family at Seaton's 4th Devon Air Ambulance Week

NOW in it's fourth year and a major annual event in Seaton's calendar, The Seaton Devon Air Ambulance Week has a full and fun-packed programme of events again this year, to help raise money for the Devon Air Ambulance Trust.

There is something for all ages, live music on the Esplanade stage, competitions, entertainment and lots more for you and your family to enjoy.

Don't forget to buy your Pooh Stick for the Pooh Sticks River Race on Sunday 28th July. Children, remember to try the Pirate Colouring Competition and join in with the Pirate Parade, including a ride on the Seaton Pearl on Friday 2nd August.

The purpose of the week is to raise lots of money for Devon Air Ambulance Trust. Devon Air Ambulance Trust needs funds to keep 2 emergency Air Ambulances flying. It costs in the region of £4.5 million every year to keep both helicopters airborne. This can only be achieved by the hard work of fundraisers and the generosity of the public.

Our special thanks go to the many individuals, clubs, traders and businesses in the town, the police, St Johns Ambulance and to everyone who has worked so hard to make the week a success and without their support the event could not proceed.

Some of our events are subject to weather and tide and are also subject to change without prior notice. Last minute changes to the schedule will be posted on www.seatonbay.com and the seatonbay Facebook page.

We hope you enjoy the events and have lots of fun! Please take care around the beach and harbour and in the sun. Let's hope that it is shining for us this year!

The organisers wish to thank you for your support. Every penny raised from the sale of this programme will go directly to Devon Air Ambulance Trust.

STREET DANCE | Talent Youngsters from the Confi-Dance group put on a spectacular performance.

Seaton Angling Centre

WITH summer here to stay, and Seaton's bay right on your doorstep, Seaton Angling Centre is set to help with all your angling needs.

Humble motor mechanic turned celebrity chauffeur, Chris Chappell, spent his life as a young man surrounded by fame and fortune - neither of which was his own.

Chris had many years of fun on the road as a driver and roadie for the likes of glam rock band, Sweet featuring stars Brian Connolly and Mick Tucker.

Now his life couldn't be more different, as he spends his days surrounded by fishing rods and reels at his Seaton Angling Centre business based at Axmouth Harbour.

Seaton Angling Centre sells all types of angling items for sea, carp and freshwater fishing.

All items sold from the centre are high quality and are bought in bulk, guaranteeing the best possible price around. With this in mind, keen anglers are free to call and arrange the purchase of bulk items as well as one-off buys.

The Seaton Angling Centre are suppliers of Greys, Daiwa Grauvells, Okuma, Penn, Snowbee and many more, perfect for all sorts of angling equipment.

As well as the basics, the centre has a delivery three times a week of fresh live bait such as fresh dug rag, lug, live peelers, live sandeels and a variety of frozen baits.

And if you don't fancy angling, you can still enjoy the water with high marine winner kayaks on sale, complete with seat and paddles from just £280.

Open seven days a week, 7am until 6pm; Seaton Angling Centre is the one stop shop for all your sea and fresh water fishing.

Nettle champ Peter says: 'I'm not feeling my best!'

AFTER munching 60 feet of stinging nettles, world champion Peter Wellman, from Axminster, admitted: "I'm not feeling my best at the moment."

Ace nettle eater Peter, 22, retained his title at the annual World Nettle Championships held at The Bottle Inn, Marshwood, on Saturday evening.

Peter, who last year ate 68 feet of nettles, was disappointed not to have beaten the world record of 72 feet but has pledged to return next year to try and make it a hat-trick of wins.

Around 23 contestants took part in the championships, including two children. They had to eat as many stinging nettles as possible within an hour and were warned before hand that anyone who was sick would be disqualified.

Peter was presented with the world championship trophy, sponsored by Otter Brewery, and the ladies winner, Lizzie Stewart, also from Axminster, received a trophy as well. Recovering from his gastronomic ordeal, Peter said: "I'm not feeling my best and it will take a few days to wash through my system. I think it has taken its toll this year. I shall be back next year because I don't think it could be any worse."

Peter added that because of the recent good weather, the nettle stalks had grown bigger and took longer to eat.

Bottle landlord Nigel Blake, who with wife Chrissie is about to celebrate their first anniversary at the popular locals' pub, described the event as "a major success - absolutely brilliant".

A large crowd gathered at the Bottle during the day enjoying live music in glorious sunshine.

“A WONDERFULLY liberating and uplifting journey”. That’s how the programme notes described how the cast felt about Axminster Drama Club’s production of the highly successful and moving “Calendar Girls” stage version of the blockbuster screenplay.

And I suspect that the three near-packed houses at Axminster Guildhall – the biggest audience ever to see a drama club production – shared similar feelings as the cast of 14 brought to life the touching story of how a group of Yorkshire Women’s Institute members went naked (sorry nude) to produce a calendar to buy a comfortable sofa for the relatives’ room at the local hospital to remember one of their member’s much-loved husband who died of leukaemia.

It would be easy to draw the conclusion that large numbers attended last week’s show – a sell-out on three consecutive nights – because so many of the cast were required to remove their clothing – but that would be an injustice to the funny but poignant Tim Firth script and a sympathetic interpretation by the direction team of Sara Leat, Eileen Stuart and Steve Black.

It was even more surprising to me that on the first night when I attended, of the 250 people present 90 per cent of them were women. I suppose that’s a testament to the play and the pull of the Women’s Institute. A nice touch also in the foyer where Axminster Country Market ran a typical WI stall.

But anyone who thought they were in for a bit of gratuitous nudity would have been very disappointed. It was all achieved very cleverly in the best possible taste – and the six female cast who were charged with discarding their clothes in front of a local audience, masked by some typical WI props (buns, flowers, preserves, knitting etc) went one further and appeared naked (sorry nude) in the programme-cum-calendar, which will surely win a prize in the NODA competitions.

And not to be outdone – or was it to give some moral

THEATRE REVIEW by Philip Evans

Calendar Girls
Axminster Drama Club
The Guildhall, Axminster

support? – the men involved in the production also got their kit off for the programme!

Axminster Drama Club rarely walk away from a challenge – and this would have been their most challenging production to date. It was executed with total professionalism – obviously well rehearsed (I didn’t detect one stumble on the first night) and with some very emotional moments.

The avalanche of support letters that flooded into Knapely WI after publicity for the “Calendar Girls” went global made up for much of the stress and doubt experienced by those involved and was interpreted in the Axminster production by the letters cascading onto the stage from above. It proved to be one of the more moving scenes.

Full of panache

The prime mover behind the production of the calendar, “Chris”, not your typical WI enthusiast, was played by Nicolaire Skye. This was the role taken by Helen Mirren in the feature film and the similarity in looks between Nicolaire and the Hollywood star was uncanny. Nicolaire’s was a performance full of panache, succeeding totally in getting over “Chris’s” force of personality.

The part of “Annie”, loving wife of “John”, whose death prompted the calendar, was portrayed with great empathy by Val Christmas, featuring in some very touching dialogue with her lifelong friend, “Chris”. Their falling-out scene was particularly powerful, matched only by the poignancy of their realisation that instead of raising enough money for a comfy sofa for the hospital where “John” died, they had enough to build a new wing in his memory. Tracey Dare was her usual professional and entertaining self as shop owner and single mother “Cora” who threw her reputation to the wind by becoming a “Calendar Girl”, far removed from her role as the WI’s official organist, and constantly worried what her daughter who had run away to France might think.

Carole Shute was perfect for the part of major’s wife and golf club stalwart “Celia” who drew the short straw to pose naked (sorry nude) before the embarrassed photographer, but rather relished the idea of celebrating the female form.

Reluctant to pose was carpet dealer’s wife “Ruth” who originally refused to go naked before discovering that her wayward husband was enjoying some extra-marital activity with a make-up girl. The role was portrayed by Sara Leat who made the most of her reliance on the vodka bottle to go au naturel.

And Norma Darke, as retired teacher “Jesse”, always the voice of reason, embraced her moment of fame with dignity.

Strong support from the other female roles not requiring any removal of clothing on stage but joining in the spirit of the production in the programme-calendar, came from Eileen Stuart (as the indignant chairman of Knapely WI), Anne Baker (Lady Cravenshire), Philippa Glanvill (as the dippy make-up girl) and Laurie Lucas (WI speaker).

Congratulations to all for maintaining the strong Yorkshire accents throughout.

The male contingent was led by Ian Craig, playing the John Alderton role of “John”, the Dalesman who died of leukaemia, prompting the calendar, a very touching performance; with Leigh Conley (“Chris’s” long suffering husband); Dan Wilde (photographer); and Mike Spellar (advertising executive) all contributing to the overall success of the production.

Production team: Carole Markham (stage manager); The Pink T-Shirt Gang (assistant stage managers and dressers); Tony Fells (lighting); Paul Smith, Andy Coley, Roly Kelly, Mike Dowling, Jackie Demkiw, Tim Leat (construction team); The Leat family and helpers (properties); Jessica Shute (make-up); Thelma Critchard and Archway Bookshop (box office); Jackie Demkiw (front of house manager); Members and friends of the club (front of house team); Terry Ife (photography); Tim Leat (publicity co-ordinator); Ashley Roy (poster design); Jenny Fells (banner); Adrian Ayres (signboard); Joy Skarratt (draw organiser); Axminster County Market (freshments and foyer sales).

Top Abba tribute set to make Squirrel Inn's Picnic in the Park a 'Gold' event

THE Squirrel Inn is located in the small hamlet of Laymore on the West Dorset and South Somerset border. The Inn boasts a fantastic beer garden, which has fantastic views of the countryside and a large children's play area. There is a large function room and restaurant, with room for 90 people seated or 150 for a buffet; it's the ideal location for your private function, wedding or party. Or if you are having a party and have a licensed venue, but need a bar, they are fully licensed for outside bars, just phone the Inn for more details.

The Squirrel Inn also has a lovely open log fire, which helps to create a cosy atmosphere on the colder nights, and with a choice of real ales always available it's a great place for a relaxed drink. You can find great value for money as well, not least on Wednesdays and Sundays. Wednesday night is steak night, with two rump steaks for £12, and there is a carvery on Sunday with a choice of two meats with all the trimmings for just £7.

There are regular events held throughout the year at the Inn, including live music on a number of Saturdays, and the next charity bingo night planned for September 14th.

The biggest event on the horizon is undoubtedly the Picnic in the Park, and Real Ale festival, on Saturday 10th August, with live music from the magnificent ABBA Gold! With 11 real ales, numerous ciders, a BBQ, and the band playing on an outdoor stage, it promises to be a great day. There is free car parking and camping available, and tickets are just £10 in advance. Tickets can be purchased either from the Squirrel Inn - 01460 30298 - or from Ron Bicknell on 01297 34621, who is also happy to supply a map for those that aren't sure how to get there. ABBA Gold are renowned as the best ABBA tribute act around, having appeared on the BBC, and played Wembley Stadium, so this truly is an event not to be missed!

PHEW! WHAT A SCORCHER! THE COUNTDOWN BEGINS...

WITH less than a month to go to Sidmouth Folk Week (August 2nd - 9th), organisers are confident that they can match the current heat wave with the sizzling line-up on offer during one of the summer's most popular festival events.

The week kicks off in fine style and humour with a pre-festival special at 8pm on Thursday, August 1st with national treasure Barry Cryer in his hilarious new show Twitter Titters with Colin Sell at the piano.

A guaranteed hoot, Barry has been a mainstay in the UK comedy scene as a writer and performer for many decades. He is currently good for a laugh, appearing as one of the veteran line-up on the long-running I'm Sorry I Haven't A Clue on BBC Radio 4.

Celtic music is as strong a theme as ever at the festival with a number of powerful Spotlight Scotland events - including Gaelic giants Capercaillie on Thursday 8th, party starters Peatbog Faeries on Monday 5th and the virtuoso fiddle and cello playing of masters Alasdair Fraser and Natalie Haas.

Fraser and Haas appear in a mighty double bill with musicians from further afield, Cape Breton legends Le Vent Du Nord (Friday 2nd), whose high-energy tunes and driving rhythms are guaranteed to ignite the passions.

Music from the Atlantic Fringe with The Unwanted, featuring the magical voice of Cathy Jordan launches a strong day for Irish music on Mon 5th, continued with the flute-based Flook making a rare and welcome appearance, spinning their traditionally rooted Irish tunes with fiery technical brilliance and an adventurous musical spirit.

The final show at The Ham on Friday 9th, features more Irish-based talent with virtuoso duo Tim Edey and Brendan Power, songwriter Colum Sands and traditional performers The Lyons Family.

But, as fans have come to expect, diversity is the key at Sidmouth Folk Week. With events as varied as the joyful Rajasthan gypsy group Jaipur Kawa Brass Band (Thursday 8th) with their vibrant repertoire, from traditional Indian classics to popular Bollywood movies hits, to the iconic Nic Jones (current holder of BBC Radio Two Folk Award for Folk Singer Of the Year) with his trio (Saturday 3rd) and the final-ever performance of athletic Morris dance-based spectacle The Furnace (Wednesday 7th) with Morris Offspring with Faustus, there is a 'something for everyone' guarantee.

The unique spread of events throughout the week has global appeal, from intimate concerts, dances, ceilidhs, displays, Morris dancing, processions, workshops, an all new family festival, Shooting Roots youth programme and sessions to the famous finale torchlight procession.

For full details of the line-up and the range of events on offer, visit or call Sidmouth Tourist Information Centre on 01395 57795.

Coach & Horses

THE secrets out, the Coach and Horses Winterbourne Abbas is back Celebrating first birthday under new ownership the old coaching inn, is proving a great success. It seems a lifetime ago that the pub on the main A35 closed, tired and outdated, it needed some creativity to give it a new lease of life and a sense of what is now required of a coaching inn for the modern traveller.

The new light airy interior is not what you expect when you enter, beautiful pine stripped floors that had been hidden by a 20 year old typical pub carpet. Comfy seating in the coffee lounge, to enjoy your much needed speciality coffee and homemade cake or take tea served in china tea cups from your own china teapot, The 100 seater restaurant with a theatre kitchen which is home to large stone based pizza oven and char grill. The refurbished patio with its vast array of colour and comfortable rattan furniture makes alfresco dining a delight.

With a growing reputation for good food, the large menu offers something for everyone. The Sunday Carvery is a real winner with the full menu also available on Sundays it's advisable to reserve your table.

The old coaching inn is back to its best serving the modern travellers just what they want on a journey.

Food served all day, with breakfast from 8am and the full menu from 12 till 9.30pm. An extensive children's menu with the modern twist of chicken nuggets and fish fingers but made fresh in our kitchen with no additives.

Gluten free menu, with gluten free pizzas and garlic bread are a sign of how this old inn has moved with the times.

With homemade classics like steak and ale pie, fish and chips, to scallops and sea bass the menu offers something for everyone REAL FOOD, FRESHLY PREPARED AND COOKED, SOURCED LOCALLY where possible. Our senior visitors can enjoy smaller portions to suit their appetite.

The extensive dessert menu is a temptation for any strong willed dinner, homemade sticky toffee pudding, marinated figs and malted vanilla ice cream and bread and butter pudding.

Alfresco dining....

While the weather is lasting out it's a great time to head to a restaurant known for alfresco dining to soak in the sun, sip a cool drink, enjoy a meal and catch up with loved ones.

Alfresco - or open-air - dining has long been a part of European living. From outdoor feasts to celebrate hunting during the Middle Ages and opulent lawn parties during the Victorian era, alfresco dining has been adopted by restaurants around the UK.

During this unexpected heat wave you'll find restaurants and pubs offering meal service in lovely courtyards, gardens and patios on long summer evenings. And if the weather goes south, you can always take cover indoors!

The Anchor Inn

THE Anchor Inn is perfectly situated overlooking the sea in the delightful Devonshire village of Beer.

Enjoy a variety of tasty bar snacks, light bites and daily "specials" in the attractive bar and on sunnier days enjoy our menu alfresco style in our cliff top garden. We welcome dogs in the bar area.

We welcome you to the comfort of our attractive restaurant and bar. We cater for a variety of dining occasions, offering a menu that is packed with a mouth-watering selection of freshly prepared dishes. We specialise in fish dishes, using locally caught produce. We have a lunchtime and an evening menu, giving you a huge choice ranging from light snacks to a full three-course dinner. Don't forget to check our ever-changing specials board. During the summer months you can dine alfresco style in our large cliff-top beer garden, where you can take in the beautiful sea views.

The Harbour Inn

Come and experience the relaxing newly refurbished Harbour Inn at Axmouth

OWNERS, Gary and Toni Valentine recently unveiled their new vision for the village pub, with a complete redesign, enhancing the 12th century traditional building, a brand new menu and something for everyone.

With the chance to relax in the sunshine in the patio and beer garden, snuggle with cake and coffee in the lounge with an open fire or enjoy a sit down meal from the contemporary menu; everyone can be safe in the knowledge that they can enjoy their visit.

From traditional Sunday lunches to a full English breakfast kick-starting your day; The Harbour Inn boasts a range of delicious treats. There is lots to choose from with the menu divided into themes from a New York 'on the streets' theme inspired by a recent trip to the city, to a 'From the sea' and 'From the Land' section and 'two for one' deals to little nibbles, garden treats and sharing boards.

Inspired by their recent trip to the Big Apple; its now possible to dine out on some of the New York specials that have earned a world-wide reputation, including the classic New York chilli dog, New York sliders, pulled pork shoulder and the Juicy Lucy burger (price range £7.50 to £11.)

For those looking for a snack during the day (12 noon to 6 pm) a sandwich in a bag (tuna bagel cheese melt, ham, cream cheese and tomato and the classic BLT) can be purchased for £4.

Naughty treats' are also playing a big role, with a brand new sweets menu, packed full of retro desserts such as chocolate brownie with all the trimmings, complete with chocolate milkshake which comes in a miniature glass milk bottle with a straw; toffee apple Eton mess and peach melba knickerbocker glory.

The pub's new 'Breakfast Club' also hopes to welcome people to enjoy a full English breakfast, seven days a week, from 9am until 11.30am.

The cosy thatched pub on Church Street is known for its traditional feel, black beams and period features and has now been enhanced with new heritage colour schemes, a light, fresh and airy feel and a state of the art kitchen.

Whilst areas have been stripped out, panelled and carpeted, the traditional features such as the open fires and original beams remain in tact, giving the pub a much-needed rejuvenation and a modern twist.

The bar has been completely relocated, doubling the size of the room as you enter, and a relaxed style has been implemented with a mixture of new bespoke table and chairs for dining to comfortable zones for visitors who just want a coffee and a biscuit.

Adding to the different zones in the pub, a new 'Captains Room' is available to hire and has been created for parties, meetings and functions, with a giant specially created table set to seat twenty people; whilst you can be sure that if you're celebrating a birthday, a free bottle of bubbly will be on the table.

Quirky props such as golden clad mirrors, paddles round every corner reflecting the pub's new logo and a typewriter to hold on to the menus are also set to bring the pub alive.

The couple have always had a flair for interior design and an eye for special touches, with their company, G&T Interiors influencing much of the new design for the Harbour Inn. The company is set to have a small outlet at the pub, selling one off quirky pieces and items inspired by the couple's travels during expeditions abroad.

Owner, Gary Valentine said: "Toni and I welcome all to enjoy their visit to the Harbour at Axmouth and we look forward to showing more of the community what we have to offer.

"We have worked hard to ensure the vision can keep every bit of the pub's character and enhance its 12th century features, whilst giving it a contemporary new look.

"We have tried to make sure that there is something for everyone, from our Captains Room for parties and meetings, to our relaxed zone and dining area and a dog friendly bar.

"We have also created our own wedding package for just £999 where we have a complete plan including a three course wedding breakfast for up to fifty people for couples who want the perfect day without spending thousands of pounds.

"We are particularly excited about our new menu which we feel has something for all kinds of customers, and are looking forward particularly to implementing our new New York inspired section in tribute to our visit there.

"Whilst being competitively priced, we are still aiming to bring a high level of quality and customer service and are excited to show off the new changes."

The Harbour at Axmouth is open from 9am until late seven days a week.

The George Inn

NEW owners Linda and her family have recently taken over The George, a 15th century traditional Inn, nestling in the heart of the picturesque village of Chardstock, close to the Devon, Somerset and Dorset borders. Bursting with olde worlde charm, linenfold panelling, large oak beams and stone mullioned windows, there's even graffiti dating back to 1649. Dine in style in the restaurant or enjoy the full menu in the bar in front of the welcoming fire. There's also the terraced beer garden for warmer days.

.....think bistro pub rather than gastro pub

The George has an eclectic menu and supports other local businesses by buying ingredients and produce from nearby farms and producers as much as possible. The menu ranges from traditional dishes like chicken and asparagus pie and fish and chips to more Mediterranean, Middle Eastern and Greek influenced dishes, like lasagne, tagines, moussaka and beef stifado (literal translation "stolen meat"). Complete your meal with a homemade rhubarb and apple crumble or apricot brioche tart. All this is complemented by an extensive wine list and good selection of traditional local real ales. Once you visit this warm and friendly pub, you'll no doubt feel inclined to become one of the regulars.

The White Horse

THE White Horse in Haselbury, with over 20 years' experience in some of London's finest restaurants, Richard & Rebecca Robinson decided to escape to the country & buy The White Horse. Having grown up in Broadwindsor, Rebecca was keen to return to this beautiful part of the world whilst Richard was extremely easy to convince with so much fantastic local produce & the stunning Dorset coast with its abundance of seafood.

"For us the experience of the great British pub is as important as fine wine and food; you can come here for our homemade Scotch eggs and local Ales or for diver caught scallops, Dorset snails and our 40 day aged steaks".

We look forward to welcoming you to The White Horse!

The Bull Hotel

STEP in off the bustling market streets of Bridport and discover the wonderful world of the Bull Hotel.

Easy-going, informal and bursting with life, this former 16th century boutique coaching inn, lovingly restored by owners Richard and Nikki Cooper, oozes eclectic style and contemporary - rustic charm.

The Bull Hotel boasts an excellent restaurant that is as popular with locals as it is with hotel guests.

It's not just the food that the Bull Hotel has to shout about. The Venner Bar, is now one of the trendiest places to be, with a wide range of cocktails being served by mixologist Lloyd Brown and his team. Open from 5.30pm Wednesday to Saturday and from 12 noon on a Sunday, the Venner Bar boasts a chilled atmosphere, with relaxed seating, and outstanding cocktails to match.

Five Dials Inn

FOLLOWING an extensive renovation The Five Dials Inn re-opened in November 2009. Our aim was to create a buzzing pub serving freshly prepared seasonal food, local beers & ciders together with clean & comfortable accommodation. We hope that we are on our way to achieving this but don't take our word for it, come and see what you think!

Expect to find 3 real ales on the bar, full time residents include 'Otter Bitter' and 'Sharp's Doom Bar' as well as a guest. We are proud of our Cask Marque accreditation and take the quality of our beer seriously!

We also offer a comprehensive selection of wines from around the world supplied by Regency Wines and are spoilt for choice here with traditional local ciders from Perrys in Dowlish Wake and Burrow Hill (as well as their unique and famous Somerset Cider Brandy). We also stock Thatchers Gold and Dry Blackthorn.

Managed by Head Chef Kirsty Earnshaw, our kitchen produces fresh seasonal food with a daily changing specials board. Emphasis is placed on keeping flavours simple and unpretentious with fresh fish daily from Brixham and meat, game and vegetables from local suppliers.

We are situated at the foot of the Blackdown Hills within easy reach of the local market town of Ilminster, close to Taunton and transport links for A303, A358 & M5

Longs Fish & Chips

Get 10% off at Longs this summer with this voucher!

THIS summer View From readers can get 10% off at Longs Fish and Chips in Bridport, by taking in the voucher on this page.

Longs have two locations in Bridport, the restaurant in King Street, and the take away in West Street.

Many people that visit and live in the town know the popular Chippie's location in West Street, but the restaurant in King Street offers so much more, but is, astonishingly, less well known. Walking down king street, you may be fooled from the outside thinking it is just a take away with a few seats, but the restaurant seats up to fifty two, and has so much more to offer than just Fish and Chips.

The restaurant in King Street wants to shout about what they can offer, and they are right to do so, it really isn't your typical chippie. Of course they serve the highest quality, local, freshest fish and chips around, but the specials menu boasts some wonderful home cooked food as well. Delights such as Breast of Duck, with a honey and ginger sauce and Brie, Potato, Courgette and Almond Crumble, served with vegetables or salad are just an example of what you can expect.

Head chef, and owner, Graham has also created his own recipe for Faggots. Customers can reminisce the good old days, when you would have lined up with your bowl to get faggots, chips, peas and gravy, a real trip down memory lane.

In West Street you will find Longs' other branch, open 7 days a week, serving traditional fish and chips. It's not just a take-away either with seating upstairs, over looking the busy market town. If you are of retirement age, why not take advantage of the Senior Citizen's Special? Available from 11:30am to 1:30pm Monday to Friday, you can choose from Cod, Sausages, or Fishcake, served with chips, peas, and garnish, followed by ice cream or rice pudding AND tea or coffee, all for just £6.20.

Go on, save yourself from the washing up, and enjoy a traditional fish and chip takeaway from Longs in West Street.

The Stable

LOCATED behind the famous Bull Hotel in East Street sits the most sociable eatery in Bridport, The Stable. It's simple food, that's simply amazing. They proudly source prime local ingredients from Dorset's finest growers and producers to create their totally unique, West Country inspired dishes.

They are pretty serious about Cider too, it's an integral part of The Stable. That's why they offer such a huge variety. "Hopefully you'll start your love affair with the wonderful nectar, right here in Dorset's cathedral to cider. We also have a fine selection of other drinks, but you'd be mad not to try a cider."

Pebbles Coffee House

WELCOME to the Little Craft Shop based at Pebbles Coffee House, a new and exciting venture set up by proprietors Jayne, Peter and daughter Sarah, with a passion for all things crafty.

The Little Craft Shop is open exclusively on Mondays and Tuesdays for private workshops and organised craft parties.

For 2013 the aim is to expand into child and adult workshops, including beginners classes. The contemporary and fun workshops will provide you with the opportunity to learn new skills, exercise your creative side with sewing, cross-stitch and knitting opportunities or making unique and beautiful paper and card crafts, in the laid back and sociable café setting.

If you are celebrating something special we also run, fun and creative parties - perfect for children's birthdays, hen parties, baby showers or any other occasion. Or you can simply come in to make a special card for a special someone or create and personalize your party or wedding invitations.

We offer computer-aided design; new customers will be shown how to design their projects with the Sizzix Big Shot Pro, Craft Dragon and Die Cut and Embossing machines. Other computerized machines will be arriving shortly. We stock and sell a large range of craft papers, cards and embellishments from well known brands such as Sizzix, Joanna Sheen, Crafters Companion and Hunkydory. You can pick and choose items to ensure a personal touch to your greeting cards, gift boxes and origami projects. The craft machines, desks and supplies are available to buy if you wish to continue the hobby at home. We also stock baking equipment including cake decorating moulds and children's baking products.

With summer here, it's time to start thinking al fresco meals and drinks. Whether you find yourself in town, country or by the sea, What better way to enjoy the English countryside or seafront than with a picnic? Put down a rug and enjoy the outdoors with easy to share salads, pies, tarts and sandwiches. If the weather turns sour, bring it all inside and have yourself an indoor picnic

To drink...

Make a batch of essential elderflower cordial for a light, summery, quintessentially British drink.

Ingredients

About 25 elderflower heads
2 lemons
1 orange
90g citric or tartaric acid
(available from chemists)
2kg caster sugar

Method

1. Put the elderflower heads in a large preserving pan or clean bucket and squeeze the juice from the lemons and the orange over them, then add the citric or tartaric acid. Cut the squeezed fruit into large chunks and add these to the preserving pan or bucket.
2. Put the caster sugar in a separate pan with 1.5 litres water and bring to the boil. Reduce the heat and simmer, stirring constantly, until all the sugar has dissolved. Pour the syrup over the flowers, cover and leave for 24 hours.
3. Strain the liquid through clean muslin, pour into sterilised bottles

To eat...

Curried Scotch Eggs

The key to a good Scotch egg lies in leaving the yolk creamy rather than totally hard boiled

Ingredients

8 fresh free-range eggs
400g coarse ground pork mince, made from the belly and shoulder
125g streaky bacon, rind removed and finely chopped
1 tsp ground black pepper
1 tsp mild curry powder
Flour, for dusting
250g fresh breadcrumbs
Sunflower oil, for deep-frying

Method

1. To boil the eggs, put 6 into a pan of cold water and bring to the boil. Boil for 4 minutes, then plunge into cold water for another 4 minutes. Peel immediately and set aside.
2. Mix the mince, bacon, pepper and curry powder in a large bowl. Season, dust your hands with the flour and pick up about 50g of mince. Flatten the mix in your right hand and, with your left, grab an egg and wrap the mince around it until it is fully encased. Repeat for all 6 eggs.
3. Beat the remaining eggs and roll each Scotch egg in the remaining flour, then dip in the egg and roll in the breadcrumbs.
4. If you have a deep-fat fryer, set it to 160°C. If not, fill a deep pan two-thirds full with oil and put over a medium heat for 5 minutes. Test the oil by adding a cube of bread. If the bread turns golden after a minute, you are good to go. Fry the eggs in batches of 3 for about 10 minutes, until the coating is golden brown. Cool completely on kitchen paper before packing

To eat...

Greek Salad - A simple recipe for a classic salad made with cucumber, onion, tomatoes, black olives and Greek feta cheese

Ingredients

1 cucumber, halved lengthways, deseeded and diced
1 large onion, thinly sliced
6 plum tomatoes, cut into chunks
24 pitted Greek black olives, halved
225g feta, diced
1 head cos lettuce, torn

For the dressing

2 tbsp fresh lemon juice
6 tbsp extra-virgin olive oil
1 garlic clove, crushed
2 tbsp fresh oregano or thyme

Method

1. Put the diced cucumber, onion, tomatoes, olives and feta into a bowl. Toss in the lettuce. Whisk the dressing ingredients and plenty of seasoning together.
2. Shake the ingredients for the dressing together and pour over the Greek salad to serve

To eat...

Chocolate and Raspberry Cake - Drizzle melted chocolate over the cake and carefully arranging raspberries and pink marshmallows on top

Ingredients

250g butter, softened, plus extra
250g self-raising flour
1 tsp baking powder
225g drinking chocolate powder
250g light soft brown sugar
4 eggs, lightly beaten
3 tbsp milk
200g frozen berries (raspberries, blackberries and blueberries)

For decoration

200g white chocolate, broken up
Fresh raspberries
Small pink marshmallows
Candles

Method

1. Preheat the oven to 180°C/fan160°C/gas 4. Grease and base line a 30cm x 20cm cake tin. Sift the flour, baking powder and drinking chocolate into a large bowl.
2. In another bowl, cream the butter and sugar together until pale and fluffy. Gradually add the eggs, beating well after each addition. Add the flour mixture and milk and gently mix until combined.
3. Spoon the cake mixture into the tin and poke in the frozen berries. Bake for 45 minutes, covering with a double layer of baking paper halfway through to prevent it browning too much, until risen and cooked. When you press the cake lightly, it should bounce back. Cool in the tin slightly, then turn out and cool on a wire rack.
4. To decorate, put the chocolate into a bowl. Rest the bowl over a pan of gently simmering water and leave to melt, stirring occasionally. Carefully remove the bowl from the saucepan.
5. Using a teaspoon, drizzle the chocolate in lines across the cake. Arrange the berries, marshmallows and candles on top before serving.

The art of grilling fish

Grilled fish is a delight, but grilling fish and seafood can seem a bit intimidating. Actually, it's not hard at all to get great results. Here are some basic tips to get you started:

• A HOT fire is key. You want to cook seafood quickly to retain the natural juices and flavor.

• A CLEAN grill rack is equally important. Fish will stick to a dirty rack and make turning the fish difficult.

• OIL the rack when the barbecue grill is hot, just before you're ready to cook. Also, oil the fish whenever possible. Use a high-temperature oil, such as grape seed, peanut, or plain olive oil.

• SKIN side up or down? Conventional wisdom says to cook the skin side first, but doing the opposite gives a nicer, crusted surface on the non-skin side, and the skin helps the fillet hold together for turning. The result is a moist, more appealing fillet. Try it and you'll see.

• FISH will hold together better and be less likely to stick if you leave it alone during grilling. Cook it for the estimated time, then try lifting it carefully.

• A WIDE, thin spatula is essential for flipping and removing fish. Having two close at hand is even better.

• IF you're grilling thin fillets, or just want to make life easier, you can grill fish and seafood in the type of double-sided, long-handled grilling rack used for hamburgers and steaks. There are also specially shaped ones made for grilling whole fish.

• A GOOD rule of thumb is to grill fish for a total of 10 minutes per inch of thickness (measured at the thickest point.) So if you have a half inch thick fillet, grill it for about 3 minutes on one side, then flip it and cook for 2 minutes more.

• AVOID sugary marinades or glazes, especially with thick fillets or whole fish, as the sugars can burn and turn bitter before the fish is fully cooked.

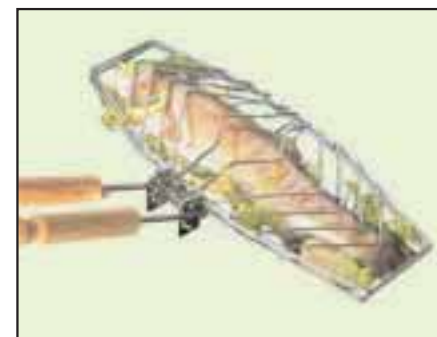

• AS with other methods, fish is fully cooked when it begins to flake and is opaque at the center. Some fish, like salmon and tuna, are often served while still somewhat 'rare', like steak.

• TUNA, salmon, swordfish, halibut, mahi mahi, barramundi, trout, mackerel, yellowtail, and sea bass are some of the best fish to grill.

Macsorsons

CELEBRATE SUMMER WITH A PICNIC ON THE LAWN

FOLLOWING the great success of last year's "picnics on the lawn" at Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre with Abba and Queen tribute bands, it's the BeeGees turn to provide the inspiration for this year's event.

The concert will run on Friday, July 26th when the hallowed turf of the cricket pitch will again provide the perfect setting for an evening of music, dancing and family fun.

This will be a major fundraiser for Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre, the registered charity that has been providing sport and recreation opportunities for the inhabitants of the Axe Valley for the over 25 years. Now the home of Axminster Cricket Club, Millwey Rise Football Club, Axminster Indoor and Outdoor Bowls Clubs and more recently Axe Vale Social Club.

The event has been sponsored by Axminster Tool Centre Limited which has enabled the ticket price to be kept to an affordable £10 per person.

Tickets are available now at The Sweet Shop, Trinity Square, Axminster, Archway Bookshop, Church Street, Axminster and over the bar at Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre.

So now that Summer has finally arrived, what could be better than packing your coolbox, blanket and chairs and joining your friends for another "Picnic on the Lawn". The bar will be open throughout the evening for refreshments and hot food will be available.

For further information please phone Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre on 01297 / 34447.

PECO GARDENS AID CHARITIES

PECORAMA in Beer opened up its gardens in the name of local charities last weekend for their annual Open Garden Day.

The annual event, aiming to support local charities this year supported beneficiaries, The Seaton and District Lions Club and St John Ambulance.

A combination of perfect sunshine and free entry to the gardens ensured a bumper crowd, who were delighted to find an extra addition to the day- miniature donkeys, Angus and Fergal on loan from Sidmouth's Donkey Sanctuary.

A variety of fundraising stalls run by Lions Club members raised a total of £700 which will be divided between the Children's Hospice south west and the Devon Freewheelers, who provide a vital lifesaving service, transporting drugs, blood and human tissue between hospitals, doctors, midwives and blood transfusion banks.

For St John Ambulance, the event marked the start of a recruitment drive in the Seaton area, as their volunteers gave demonstrations in Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) and the use of defibrillators.

Anyone interested in joining can contact Area Manager, Simon Enticott on 07534 708732.

SUNDAY AUGUST 4TH

COLYTON: Walt Disney - The Man, The Myth, The Magic. Colyton Theatre Group hosts a presentation

Rob with his collection of Disney memorabilia

Walt Disney: the man, the myth, the magic

ROB Gibbons' first visit to Walt Disney World Florida was in 1986 and he was instantly impressed by the sheer size of the property and how it was run. Rob was keen to discover more about the man and how he inspired so many people around the world. Can you imagine the world without Disney? No films, parks and not to mention his many contributions towards charities and education.

Rob began collecting Disneyana soon after his first visit in 1986 and now owns a most impressive collection and archive of Disney material. He enjoys researching and collecting new material and constantly adding both old and new items to his collection. He has made over 24 trips to Disney parks and never tires of discovering more about Walt Disney.

The presentation at Colyton Town Hall, 3.00pm on Sunday, August 4th is sure to thrill many - you will learn more about the man and his fantastic achievements. There will be a slide show, posters, books, memorabilia and toys. All proceeds from this event will be donated to the CLIC Sargent charity - Cancer and Leukemia in Children. Tickets are £4 Adults, £1 under 14's. Tea and cake stall. Tickets available from The Little Shop, Colyton or tel 01297 552626.

Relocation Services

Moving homes is a hugely stressful undertaking whatever your age or abilities. Armchair Services are here to help, offering all the support you need for all aspects of the move whether you are downsizing, relocating, moving into residential care or supported housing.

Home Help

If you aren't looking to move homes we can help you to de-clutter, re-organise and better facilitate your home to your needs.

Although we specialise in helping those moving homes in later life our service is available to everyone. You may be frail or have a disability that makes some aspects of moving homes difficult or impossible for you. Family and friends may not be in a position to help. We offer relevant advice and will support and guide you through the process.

We can provide a comprehensive service to manage all aspects of the move or tailor the service to your specific needs.

Whether the help is for you or someone you know please don't hesitate in contacting us to find out if we can help.

The Audi A3 – three million cars and counting

17 YEARS of enduring global appeal have just culminated in the production of the three-millionth Audi A3, the car which in 1996 stole a march on the German prestige 'establishment' by spearheading the creation of the now flourishing premium compact class. Car number three million is a 2.0 TDI quattro version in five-door Sportback form, one of three attractive body styles currently available in the all-new, third generation A3 range, which for the first time also includes a four-door saloon option. More variants are set to follow.

"Three million automobiles in the compact class is quite a performance," said Dr. Frank Dreves, Board of Management Member for Production at AUDI AG. "This success is backed by a strong team and an efficient production system. With the Audi A3, we have created a new brand segment – we have been setting standards in the compact class with innovative technology and first-class quality for 17 years now."

In 2012, Audi produced a total of 152,993 A3 series cars at its plant in Ingolstadt, Germany. This total included A3 and A3 Sportback models, as well as S derivatives. The new Audi A3 Sportback, launched in 2013, has accounted for the highest proportion of this production volume: Each day, about 700 examples of this immensely popular variant roll off the assembly line.

Approximately 913,000 examples of the first Audi A3 were sold. That worldwide success continued with the second generation (2003-2013), which underscored the Vorsprung durch Technik brand's domination of this segment in terms of technology and quality. Nearly two million of these second generation cars were delivered to customers.

In late 2012, the completely new third generation car made its debut, and again set new benchmarks for quality, build integrity and technological sophistication at this level. Last month, the new A3 Saloon joined the three-door and Sportback variants, and later this year the new 300PS S3 and S3 Sportback will make their UK debuts, followed in early 2014 by the S3 Saloon.

All three A3 ranges offer a choice of exceptionally efficient, highly refined engines, including the 1.4 TFSI with Cylinder-on-Demand technology and 60.1mpg potential and the 1.6 TDI which pares CO2 output back to 99g/km. They combine these with fit, finish and equipment worthy of an executive class car, and also offer the opportunity to upgrade with sophisticated options such as Audi magnetic ride damper control, a 'hands-free' parking assistant, swivelling adaptive cornering lights, a 705-watt Bang & Olufsen audio system, MMI touch fingertip data entry and Audi connect, bringing internet-based services to the car. In the near future, high-tech all-LED headlights will also be added to this list as an alternative to the more familiar xenon units.

Next year the A3 range will also embrace the future with its first hybrid variant – the petrol-electric A3 e-tron, capable of covering up to 188mpg while emitting as little as 35g/km of CO2 (according to the NEDC test). In the meantime, prices for the existing A3 range start from £18,280 and rise to £29,160, with the S3 and S3 Sportback priced at £30,640 and £31,260.

▲ Three million and counting | Production of the Audi A3 began in 1996, and has this week passed the three million cars mark.

'Be the Boss!' at SNOWS Toyota weekend event

SNOWS Toyota are holding an event like no other this weekend across all four Devonshire dealerships, Exeter, Honiton, Plymouth & Torbay, where you can quite literally "Be the Boss".

The 'You're the Boss Weekend' gives you, the customer, the chance to value your own car and be the boss within the entire sales process. You choose the car you are interested in, take it on a test drive and then decide what part exchange value you want for your car upon your return to the dealership. Snows Toyota will be listening to all of your offers, crazy and sensible for 2 days only.

As well as the you running the deal, Snows Toyota will also be offering some huge reductions on selected used models, with a lot of new models being reduced to cost price. As a part of each deal you will also receive 2 years free servicing with any vehicle purchased, a free iPad on selected models and a free wash 'n' vac, all with an amazingly low £1,250 minimum part exchange.

To ensure that you have the time to "be the boss" of your deal, appointments are absolutely necessary for this weekend across all dealerships, set to last for an hour. To book your appointment contact your local Snows Toyota... And get ready to 'Be the Boss.'

Unbeaten Seaton A team march on

FENITON with Roger Smith

IN the over 60s triples league the A team's woes continued with a 28-40 defeat away to Sidmouth.

The ladies played two East Devon League matches and sadly lost them both.

In the first instance they lost 22-48 to a strong Madeira team and then away to Crediton on both rinks.

They also lost a friendly match against Seaton by 49-59. The winning rink was; G Blackmore, B Halse, G North and S Kury 24-23.

The mixed team lost away 47-68 at Exonia. However, they defeated Tiverton Borough 72-62 away. The winning rinks were; E Rolph, G Phillips & L Ley, J Lovell, J Rolph & D Evans 19-15 and A Hughes, D Phillips & J O' Sullivan 19-16.

The team of G Blackmore, J Smith, G North & R Veitch represented the Club in the Madeira Pomeroy Trophy competition and finished second with a score of +9.

Di Phillips is to be congratulated on reaching the section 3 final of the ladies unbadged County Singles competition.

SEATON with Linda Stone

ON Tuesday Ilminster Bowls Club visited Seaton to play a friendly match and returned home with a 117-97 victory. Seaton's top rink was; Jill Richards, Bob Rutter, Linda Stone and Dave Yardley.

On Wednesday, July 17th, in an Over 60's Triples game at Heavitree, Seaton "A" extended their unbeaten run to 11 games with a 30-26 victory over Heavitree B.

Seaton had to fight hard to maintain their record against two resilient Heavitree rinks on a very hot afternoon.

Top weekend of motor sport ahead

THE highlight of the south-west's hill climb season is undoubtedly the visit of the country's premier series, the Avon Tyres/TTC Group British Hill Climb Championship, to Wiscombe Park this weekend (Saturday/Sunday July 27th/28th).

The main championship event with two exciting run-offs for the fastest 12 championship competitors will be on the Sunday whilst the previous day will see a separate event for local drivers plus the practice runs for those contesting the national championship.

Challengers for the title will be attacking the lead that the current championship leader Scott Moran has amassed so far this season.

Competitors will be travelling from Scotland, Wales and the Channel Islands with the intent of claiming success.

Not all of the challengers have such extensive travelling arrangements however. Fans of hill climbing in the south-west will be looking to a more local driver for success.

A driver who has taken five out five wins at the east Devon track this season, Ottery St Mary's Ed Hollier and added to those outright wins at Gurston Down in Wiltshire.

Ed however is no stranger to success on the national scene having taken the British Leaders Championship in 2007 with his OMS SC1 Suzuki powered sports racer.

Now with 1600cc of Suzuki Hayabusa power in his Pilbeam MP62 single-seater he is again ready to take on 'the guns'.

Favourite for success at Wiscombe this weekend is the reigning British Champion Trevor Willis. Having taken a new hill record at Wiscombe last year he will be keen to close the gap at the top of the points table to Scott Moran. Willis has a new OMS 28 chassis this season powered by a 3.2 litre Powertec V8 engine.

The new machine has taken some time to develop but now the results are coming. The challenging nature of the Wiscombe track does however give the new breed of motorcycle engined cars a chance at pressurising their bigger brethren.

Added interest at Wiscombe will involve the ever-developing battle of the lightweight carbon-fibre chassis, powered by highly developed motorcycle engines, which have been proving a match for the large capacity V8 powered machines.

This was very much the case last week at Bouley Bay in Jersey and apart from Hollier, Jos Goodyear will be in with a chance having taken a brace of second places in the two championship run-offs in last year's Wiscombe qualifier.

The series only visits the south west's premier hill climb course at Wiscombe Park once during the season so the fastest driver/car combinations will not only be fighting each other but bidding for a new hill record should track conditions allow.

Observers and enthusiasts of the sport certainly have great expectations of a new course record.

Although the focus of attention will be on these ultimate machines, there will be a huge supporting cast of saloon and sports cars.

Included in the entry of over 120 will be competitors contesting classes for saloon and sports cars in addition to the vintage Austin Sevens.

More local drivers will battle for glory in the Woolbridge Motor Club invitation class for modified and racing cars which will be part of the Sunday event.

Weymouth's Geoff and Graham Blake will contest the Modified Specialist Sports Car class the previous day but will have over 20 drivers as opposition the following day as they take their two litre Westfield SEI sports car up against saloons, other sports cars and the 1963 Cooper T65 formula junior racer of Reg Broome.

The roadgoing invitation class sees Frampton's Stewart Green at the wheel of his Sylva Riot joining Lawrence Alexander from Bridport in his BMW Z3M Coupe in their quest for glory.

Gates open for at 10am on both Saturday and Sunday. Further information available at www.wiscombepark.co.uk ◆ REIGNING British Champion and Wiscombe Park record holder Trevor Willis will be looking to success on the challenging east Devon course.

Chard eight does club proud in Gloucester

ON one of the hottest days of the year so far eight of Chard & District Swimming Club's top swimmers headed for one of the hottest places - Gloucester, for the South West Regional Sprint Meet, WRITES HANNAH PULLINGER.

The temperature inside the pool was as hot as that outside, as the swimmers competed in all four strokes over 50m sprints and the 100m Individual Medley.

To swim at this event competitors have to have achieved at least one Regional qualifying time and swum at the Regional Championships earlier in the season.

All eight swimmers did their Club proud and achieved many personal best times.

At the end the overall points from all events determined winners in each age group.

All eight swimmers were placed in the top 15 in their respective age groups.

Hannah Pullinger 17, swimming in the open age group achieved the best overall placing coming 5th, with Luke van den Barselaar also 17 coming 7th in the boy's open age group.

Other placings were: Melissa Hanson 15, 9th, Jamie Pullinger 14, 10th, Joe Spurway 16, 10th, Dan Andrews 18, 11th, Ben Fowler 17, 14th, Oliver Bilbie 15, 15th.

On an equally hot Sunday last weekend two other Chard & District swimmers braved the open water at the ASA South West Open Water Championships held at Weymouth.

With delays at the start due to fog, and despite the hot weather on land, sea temperatures of only 14.7 degrees - below the recommended temperature for such events - some competitors found it too cold to compete.

Lauren van den Barselaar 15, in her first open water event, swam to a splendid third place overall in her age group (girls 15-18 years) in the 1.5km event in a time of 26.40.64 and was also placed first of the Somerset swimmers in her age group.

Paul Harrison 14, also swam and achieved first place out of the Somerset swimmers in the 14 years and under Boys age group, in a time of 25.26.82.

Both were presented with certificates and medals.

Finally we would like to apologise to 11 year old Oliver Rodger for missing his name from the recent report on our Chard & Clevedon Open Meet.

Oliver swam very well and achieved top eight medals in his age in both his events, coming 4th in the boy's 50m freestyle and 8th in the 200m breaststroke.

The Club are always looking for new members of all ages; for more information about Chard & District Swimming Club and competitive swimming visit their web site at www.chardswimming.org

■ WELL DONE: Henry Taswell who won the Top Boy award in the 12-year age group.

Youth section thriving at Millwey Rise Football Club

MILLWEY Rise Football Club's youth section continues to go from strength to strength.

Club Youth section co-ordinator Nick Tregale has reported more than 70 youngsters are taking part in the club's pre-season training sessions.

Tregale said: "We've had a great response but are always keen to welcome some new faces regardless of age."

"We train on Saturday Mornings from 10am to 11.30am and have two qualified coaches for each age group running seven teams this season."

The East Devon club have Under 7s, 8s, 9s, 11s, 12s and 13s in the Exeter & District Youth League and under 15s in the East Devon Youth League.

RESULTS: Hi Q 55 Howden Hawks 53, Uplozman 55 Pixies 46, OPG 73 JD Tyres 39, Signs South West 67 Otter Valley Dairy 47.

THE final week of the season and the major place to be decided was runners-up spot – with both OPG and Hi Q needing to win and the team with the best goal difference would finish in second place.

Hi Q were up against Howden Hawks and found the going tough. With Sue Merrett playing well for Hawks they held onto their lead through to the third quarter, starting the final period 50-44 in front.

In the final period Bev Parris pulled Hi Q back into the game and with a final flourish they finished victors by 55-53.

This was not enough to stop OPG who were up against JD Tyres. With Hannah Lee playing well for OPG they had turned their opening deficit into a 38-34 lead by half-time. Despite fine play from Jenny Bryant for JD they could not stem the attacking power of OPG who finished victors by 73-39 to ensure their second place finish.

This defeat for JD meant they were one of three teams ending the season on 18 points.

Both OPG and Hi Q finished with superior goal differences to table toppers Flamingos, so if OPG and Hi Q had not drawn earlier in the season a win for either of them would have ensured the title!

Uplozman finished the season with a victory over Pixies, the only side not to have a win this summer.

With Zoey Beresford playing well, Uplozman did just enough to edge a 55-46 win, Sara Green put in another great performance for the Pixies.

The final game of the season saw Signs South West finish with a win against improving Otter Valley Dairy.

With Debbie Wheeler playing well, SSW proved too strong for OVD despite good work from Roseanne Dyer. The final score was 67-47 to SSW. Next week is the AGM, followed by a break and then netball commences again in September.

Davis provides spice on Captain Morgan's day

AXE CLIFF with Janet Dack

THE B Team travelled to Teign Valley last Saturday and unfortunately lost 6-0. There were three very close matches with Axe Cliff Losing out on the 18th.

Winner of the Gees Bowl played for in glorious sunshine was Anthony Hellier with a nett 68.

In second place was Gerry Binmore with a nett 71 beating Nigel Pritchard also with a nett 71 on the back nine.

HONITON with Andy Wagner

CAPTAIN'S DAY

WHAT a lovely day to play golf, especially as it was a 'free round' on Captain Dave Morgan.

Besides a well stocked prize table Dave gave all the entrants a souvenir golf ball.

There was a happy atmosphere and some very good scoring with Andy Ford's nett 65 heading Division One ahead of Alan Pollock 66 and Dan Noar 67.

But it was Pete Davis in Division Two who took the Calabagh Mug with a nett 62 ahead of Andy Wall 65 and John Bevan 67. It was a showcase day for a popular Captain with the proceeds going to his charity Cystic Fibrosis.

TUESDAY MIXED

THE groundstaff are to be congratulated on the condition of the greens despite the very hot and dry.

This was reflected in the scores of this week's format – a tough Foursomes Medal play with 30 members taking part.

The winning couple, with a nett 71 on c/b, were Penny Blackburn and Andy Sharland.

In 2nd place also nett 71 – again on c/b, were Linda McLaughlin and Laurie Tollemache. And in 3rd place – again nett 71 was Maureen Tollemache and Max Pipe.

Fourth place went to Ann Trayling and Bob Barnes with a nett 75.

LADIES SECTION

OUR Lady Captain, Pam, celebrated her first six months in office in great style on Wednesday and provided a colourful prize table for the winners of the Stableford competition.

There were some good scores and glorious sunshine completed a very enjoyable day.

The overall winner of the Lady Captain's prize was Catherine Doherty with 40 points.

Other winners included; (for Silver Division) 1st Elizabeth Ward with 39 points, 2nd Henrietta Bradshaw with 36 points and 3rd Mona Carter with 35 points.

In Bronze 1 Division, Brenda Hyde was 1st with 39 points, Penny Blackburn was 2nd with 35 points c/b from Jan Dickinson in 3rd.

Bronze 2 Division winner was Sue Long with 36 points c/b from Jennifer Pyle in 2nd also with 36 points, and Linda McLaughlin was 3rd with 35 points.

Prizes for nearest the pin on 2nd hole for Bronze Division was Sue Long, and nearest the pin on 12th hole for Silver Division was Heather Clarke.

SENIORS SECTION

THERE was a good turnout for a Seniors Murphy competition which is played as a Stableford with no points for a net par and exaggerated plus or minus points for birdies and bogeys – a very challenging format!

It certainly concentrated the minds of a few players, the best being Buzz Harris who won division one with a magnificent plus 15 points.

He was followed by three players on plus 8 – Alan Devenny (again), Angus Falconer and Malcolm Matthews. Vic Wood took the last prize.

Division two was won by Steve Blundell with plus 10, beating David Coombs by one point.

Peter Blake and Ton Tunncliffe both scored five and Fred Utting took the last prize.

Before the prize-giving, Captain Bob Underwood presented John Chew with a generous cheque for club funds, all the proceeds of the Seniors Invitation Day held on 12th July.

He also presented David Morgan the club Captain with a cheque for his charity (Cystic Fibrosis), funds raised by the raffle on Invitation Day.

Clist clinches first place finish in Colyton Rebel run

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS with DAVE MUTTER

THERE was AVR success at the Colyton Rebel 10K which was run in blistering summer sun.

The course which is all uphill for the first 1.5 miles was unusually dry, with even Morgan-hayes woodland paths mud free.

AVR's Matt Clist started cautiously, then powered through to win in 36:17.

Garry Perratt thought Mike Robinson from Tamar Trotters may win, but he couldn't match Matt and was 2nd in 36:47.

Tim Lenton started off strong, then the heat got to him but he still finished 3rd, 36:36. Amy Greenhalgh had a great run finishing 2nd Lady, 11th overall in 44:26.

Eleanor Wood was 12th over 55 lady, 20th overall, 47:24 and Robin Britton 1st male over 60, 25th overall, 48:48. Jon Day ran well to be 6th, 41:10; Rupert Pady 10th, 44:02 and Mark Hilder 16th, 45:37.

Mark Nevell was 28th, 49:03 and Ian Clements 33rd, 50:32. Richard Hale was a tad ungentlemanly in passing Becs Platt just before the finish; Richard was 36th, 51:07 and Becs 37th, 51:16.

Margaret Pearce was surprised to see Dave Mutter looming up behind her and put a spurt on, overtaking a few people to be 48th and 1st over 40 lady in 54:26.

Anna McLaughlin sprinted past Dave to be 51st, 54:26, with Dave Mutter 52nd, 54:56. Young Stephen Morbey had a fine run, just beating his dad Alan! Stephen was 53rd, 55:04 and Alan 54th, 55:21.

Andy Sayers is great on the flat, but those initial hills slowed him down. He was 58th, 57:09 with Fiona Powell 59th, 57:17. Kim Vine unfortunately felt a little unwell during the run, but still finished 68th, 1:01:37 and Sue Venn was 73rd, 1:05:24.

A special mention to Graham Newton who fetched blind runner Louise Simpson from Honiton Station where the train arrived an hour late.

Undaunted Graham accompanied Louise around the 10K route which was successfully completed in 1 hour 2 mins.

Several juniors ran the shorter 5K run with Ollie Caute performing superbly by finishing 2nd in 25:50. Senior Ben Franklin was 5th, 28:12, then followed three juniors: Arun Hawkes 10th, 29:35; Ethan Day 12th, 30:56 and Caleb Sinclair 19th, 36:48. Senior lady Kathryn Alexander was 21st, 39:14.

Other AVR's helped out with the run, with Alice Fitzgerald, Jane Woodward and Gill Day back marking, Rick Wood marshalled deep in the woods and Paul Johns was the time-keeper extraordinaire.

Many thanks to Colyton Grammar School for hosting this superb event.

On Sunday morning Luke Reed and Alex

Todd travelled to Portland to tackle the Race to the Bill Triathlon.

On arrival in Portland it appeared to be very windy, which made the sea choppy. This made for a tough start to the standard distance race which comprises of a 1500m swim, 40k bike and 10k run.

After travelling the length and breadth of the country over the last few weeks, Luke was looking forward to racing locally again.

He certainly came out of the blocks quickly, finishing the swim 8th overall in 24:36, then onto the hilly bike course which seemed to suit him as he had the 6th fastest time on the day of 1:15.22.

Luke came of the bike in 3rd place, then onto the run he got up to 2nd, with a mile to go started to feel the pace and lost two places. He finished the run in 38:54 giving him an overall race time of 2:20.30 and a superb 4th place overall.

Alex Todd had a very good race, considering the conditions weren't ideal for a maiden sea swim, he gritted his teeth to finish the swim in 35:35.

Onto the bike Alex managed a very good time of 1:18:36, 20th fastest of the day before moving onto the run where he realised how much the swim and bike had taken out of him, but he still ran a very strong 10k of 39:43.

This gave Alex an overall time of 2:35.59 and 30th place overall. Six AVR's took part in the Haytor Heller event on Saturday evening.

This is a challenging 10k run across Dartmoor starting half way up Haytor following a hilly, circular route to Houndtor and back through moorland and woods.

Despite the heat AVR Tim Lenton achieved an excellent time of 41:48, coming 3rd overall, and 1st in the over 35 category. Next AVR home was Graham Newton, taking 1st in the men's over 60s, 49th overall in 52:40.

Eleanor Woods took 2nd place in the over 55s ladies category, and 81st overall in 57:29. Richard Hale finished in 1:01:32. Last year, Richard's son-in-law, Sam Wickens managed to pip him at the post, but this year the tables were turned with Sam finishing in 1:03:07.

Bringing up the AVR rear was Diane Newton, running on her 64th birthday to finish in 1:26:26, and taking five minutes off last year's time.

All finishers were given technical T shirts in AVR colours of blue and yellow. Thanks to Teignbridge Trotters for a brilliant race.

Carol Austin and Lesley Adams ran the National Lottery Anniversary Run which was five miles around Olympic park and finishing in the stadium on the hallowed track of Mo, Jess and Usain fame.

Carol's time was 35:21 (801st) and Lesley's

47:04 (5551st). There were 12,500 runners in what was a superb occasion.

Liam Roberts raced in the Vic Musgrove Fast 5km, which was held in Telford and finished in 15:40 to win by 11 seconds from Joe Brocklehurst of Shrewsbury AC and record a two second PB.

This was a big surprise for him after a month of poor training and given the lack of race-friendly weather recently.

Liam is now looking for a significant improvement with a period of consistent training.

There was a new run on the circuit last Sunday – 'Mrs E's Big Wheeze', a 10K multi-terrain run based around Mrs Ethelston's Primary School in Uplyme.

Uplyme was scenic but challenging in places – the first mile was almost all uphill and the last 100m began gently up and finished very up.

The 2K junior race around the playing fields (Mrs E's Little Wheeze), was won by Ollie Caute in 5:46. Adam Burrough was 5th in 6:43, Max Bowskill 6th in 7:03 and Matt Thurgood 7th in 7:08.

The Big Wheeze was won in 36:13 by Tim Hartley who happened to be on holiday in the area.

This was a seriously impressive time since 2nd-place Matt Clist was nearly two minutes behind in 38:08.

Tim Lenton was third in 39:34 after running at Haytor the night before, Rupert Pady 7th 44:16, Robin Britton 15th 47:36, Geoff Woodward 24th 52:55, Steve Reynolds 27th 53:37 and Siobhan Reddy 30th 57:45.

Thanks to Eleanor Wood, Janet Woodward, Garry Perratt and Paul Johns for helping out the organisers at this great new event.

HONITON RUNNING CLUB with JUDY DAVEY

HONITON Running Club had a great turn out for the second Colyton Rebel Run last Wednesday evening.

This is a 10K moderately challenging multi-terrain race based at Colyton Grammar School. The temperature didn't seem to have dropped at all from the heat of the day which probably accounted for a reduction in numbers from the first running last year.

The running terrain was completely different as last year saw runners wading through mud and the scheduled run around the school's grass athletics track was cancelled.

Not so this year; the ground was hard and not a globule of mud to be seen. Matt Clist of Axe Valley Runners won the race in 36 minutes 17 seconds and first home for Honiton was Chris Entwistle in 7th place in 41:20.

Richard Harvey led the next three Honiton runners home coming 13th in 44:58 with Steve Davey only eight seconds behind and Richard Harris only 18 seconds behind Steve.

Suzanne Spiller was next back in 19th place and 3rd lady overall in a time of 47:02. Tom Bornet put in a welcome appearance having been absent from the club for a while. He had a great run coming 21st in 47:30.

He was followed by Bruce Strawbridge who came one place and 21 seconds later. Bruce had overtaken Howard Bidmead in the later stages of the race and Howard finished 24th in 48:09.

Judy Davey was next back in 28th place in 48:58. Mark Andow, Steve Briggs and John Burgess had a tussle during the race with the final positions being Mark 33rd in 50:13, Steve 35th in 50:45 and John 40th in 51:19.

Esme Wilson struggled in the heat but came 43rd in 52:23 followed by Pippa Westall who finished in 47th place in 53:44.

Pete Lyus just wanted to run continuously for 10k and this he managed coming 72nd in 1:03:52 with Wendy Williams taking the next position in 1:04:34. Carol Turnham completed the Honiton contingent coming 75th in 1:05:51. There were 80 finishers.

Honiton Juniors were also out taking part in the 5k race which forms half of the 10k route.

The talented youngsters in the form of Iain Ross, Florence Swan and Rowan Westall showed the rest how it was done. Iain won the race in 24:27 with Florence coming 8th overall and 1st girl in 28:38. Rowan finished the line-up coming 9th in 29:04. There were 25 finishers.

Thanks to the PTA for marshalling and also AVR for helping organise the event.

On Saturday evening four Honiton Runners headed to Dartmoor to run the Haytor Heller run.

This is a six-mile tough off-road run that starts halfway up Haytor, heads along and up Hound Tor before a nice but rocky descent. Then a final climb up Haytor leads to a downhill finish.

The weather was hot but there was a welcome breeze. Ian Stewart was the first Honiton runner in coming 16th in a fantastic time of 46:58.

Howard Bidmead and Steve Briggs had a battle with each other on the downhill finish ending in a photo finish with Steve winning the battle by a second. He came 98th in 60:49 and Howard 99th 60:50.

The final Honiton runner and the only female was Olivia Higginson who hasn't raced since March. She was happy to finish in 72:47 and 176th.

The winner was Jamie Parkinson in an amazingly fast time of 39:58. There were 235 runners.

Skipper helps recovery

WITH promotion rivals Ipplepen slipping to defeat against Chagford Axminster Cricket Club 1st XI gave their hopes of a return to the Devon League Division B a huge lift with a narrow four run win over lowly Yelverton at Cloakham Lawn on Saturday.

Batting first, Ax, with skipper Tristan Wakeley clipping a fine unbeaten 73 and Matt Pile 53, recovered from a dodgy start to post 218 for 8.

The visitors ran them close before falling just short with Pile completing a fine all-round performance taking 4 for 41.

The Axminster 1sts are due to entertain neighbours Seaton in a Corinthian Cup semi-final at Cloakham Lawn on Friday (2pm start). Axminster have name the following team: Wakeley, Seward, Hurford, Larcombe, Taylor, Farrow, Pile, Cross, Prior, Garner, Miller.

Meanwhile, Seaton 1st XI's slide down the Division D table continuing with a six-wicket reverse at Halberton & Sampford Peverell.

Seaton skipper Ben Morgan did his bit with the bat top-scoring with 58 while Alex Hunt (56) also notched a half-century in a competitive total of 234 for 7.

But this was to prove to be too few as the hosts reached their target for the loss of just four wickets.

A 193-run defeat for the 3rd XI completed a miserable weekend for the Pirates.

Opponents Exmouth 3rds closed on 302 for 6 and then proceeded to dismiss the hosts for just 109.

Down in Division E Kilmington 1sts were on the wrong end of a massive 318 run hiding at Babbacombe.

The hosts racked up 367 for 5 before dismissing Kilmington for just

49 with A Kingdon taking a divisional best 9 for 27

It was a batsman's day at Kilmington where A.Cook (86) and John Lavender (55no) helped the hosts' 2nd XI up to 266 for 7.

But opponents Countess Wear reached their target for the loss of just three wickets.

Over in the Somerset League Division 8S All Saints came out on top in a low scoring encounter at Barrington.

The hosts were shot-out for 131 with Mike Nunns claiming 4 for 53.

The run case wasn't straight forward though and it took a gritty 40 from opener Josh Short to see the Saints home.

With rivals Taunton Deane Crusaders inactive the win takes All Saints 20 points clear at the top of the table.

No details were available for the 2nd XI local-derby between Seaton and Axminster.

Parents children and Students Make the Grade

JUNE was a busy month for Seaton Martial Arts Centre's American Kenpo Self Defence and the Success for Life Children classes.

Several Gradings were held for each of the childrens groups Minis (4-6 year olds), Mighty's (7-9 years old), Majors (10-12) and Cadets (13-16) as well as gradings for the adults of whom several are parents with children also training.

Examinations were overseen by external examiners both in Exeter, for the Adults, and at the Martial Arts Centre in Scalwell Lane for the children.

The standard and skills shown were commented on to be worthy of being showcased anywhere in the world not just the UK.

All the students worked hard for their new belts adults and children alike, showing that Martial Arts
